The transitory nature of college football means that teams annually have to recreate their identities. Players and coaches come and go. So even though Georgia has a 24-5 record, an SEC Championship, and berths in the College Football Playoff and a New Year's Six bowl over the past two seasons, what is Coach Kirby Smart's message entering his fourth spring in Athens?

"We need to keep improving," Smart said. "We want our players to have good fundamentals and to focus on the task at hand. We want to get better at being us. We want our players to come into the meeting room and hear us say, 'Here is the plan. Here is what we're doing today to get better.' Getting better every day is how you get the most out of your team. That's how we manage our practices. You will see a lot of good on good in practice."

The Bulldogs have a strong nucleus in place as they charge toward the 2019 season with championship aspirations. Georgia returns its leading passer and rusher in quarterback Jake Fromm and tailback D'Andre Swift, respectively, and they will be ably supported by a veteran and deep offensive line. The Bulldogs have four of their top five tacklers from a year ago back in the fold in defensive backs Richard LeCounte and J.R. Reed, inside linebackers Monty Rice and Tae Crowder. Rodrigo Blankenship gives the Bulldogs a weapon both on placement kicks and on kickoffs.

The offseason overhaul was not limited to the players on the roster. James Coley was promoted to Offensive Coordinator, while Dan Lanning will transition to the Fain and Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator. Newcomers Todd Hartley and Charlton Warren will oversee the tight ends and defensive backs, respectively.

Georgia has an infusion of young talent with several early enrollees and junior college transfers available for the spring, and additional help is on the way for preseason fall camp.

QUARTERBACKS

Jake Fromm will return for his third season at the helm of the offense after completing 206-of-306 passes for 2,749 yards and 30 touchdowns (including a career-best four in the regular-season finale against Georgia Tech) a year ago. In 29 career games, including 28 straight starts, he has fired for more than 5,300 yards and 54 touchdowns.

Stetson Bennett has rejoined the Bulldogs after spending 2018 at Jones County (Miss.) Junior College and throwing for 1,840 yards and 16 touchdowns. Bennett was Georgia's scout team quarterback in 2017 and earned the Offensive Scout Team Player of the Year.

D'Wan Mathis signed with Georgia in December and enrolled early to participate in spring drills. The Michigan native passed for more than 4,500 yards and rushed for more than 1,000 yards during his final two seasons of high school.

John Seter has two years of experience in the program and will return for additional depth.

Junior D'Andre Swift gained a team-high 1,049 yards and scored 10 touchdowns as a sophomore in 2018.

Rodrigo Blankenship looks to challenge a number of UGA records in his senior season, including total career points and career field-goal percentage.

RUNNING BACKS

D'Andre Swift led the Bulldogs in carries (163), yards (1,049) and touchdowns (10) a year ago, despite starting just five games. He also returns in 2019 as Georgia's leading receiver as he pulled in 32 passes for 297 yards and three scores.

Brian Herrien has been a solid contributor on offense and special teams during his career, and he pitched in 295 rushing yards and four total scores in 2018. James Cook added 284 yards on the ground and two touchdowns. Zamir White redshirted in 2018 following a knee injury in preseason camp, but he arrived as the nation's top-ranked running back with more than 7,000 yards rushing.

The Bulldogs also return Prather Hudson (a special teams ace), Ian Donald-McIntyre, Darius Jackson, and Garrett Jones for more looks.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Jeremiah Holloman is the leading returning wideout as he pulled in 24 passes for 418 yards and five touchdowns last season. Tyler Simmons had a 71-yard scoring catch and a 56-yard touchdown run among his four combined trips to the end zone last season. Trey Blount hauled in three passes, and while he did not have a catch, Demetris Robertson took an end-around rush 72 yards for a touchdown.

Georgia has additional emerging pass catchers in Matt Landers, Kearis Jackson, and Tommy Bush.

The Bulldogs also return reserves Willie Erdman, J.T. Dooley, Patrick Burke, Josh Moran, Reid Tulowitzky, Jaylen Johnson, and Patrick Bond.

TIGHT ENDS

First-year tight ends coach Todd Hartley inherits a group led by Charlie Woerner, who pulled in 11 passes a year ago. John FitzPatrick gained valuable experience in two games, and because he played in four-or-fewer games, FitzPatrick still has a full-season redshirt remaining if needed. Ryland Goede enrolled early after setting Kennesaw Mountain's school records for catches and receiving yards and touchdowns. Mitchell Werntz and Peyton Mercer went through the 2018 practices and scrimmages. The Bulldogs also have added former Georgia baseball signee Jarrett Freeland, who has been a minor leaguer the past few years.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Four-fifths of the starting lineup, not to mention additional players with starting experience, return to pave the way for the Bulldogs' explosive offense. A year ago, the offensive line triggered more than 6,000 total yards.

Georgia returns both tackles and both guards from a year ago. Andrew Thomas was an All-America and All-SEC performer in 2018 as the left tackle, while Isaiah Wilson held down the right side and picked up Freshman All-

Junior tackle Andrew Thomas, an All-America and All-SEC pick in 2018, will anchor what figures to be a strong offensive line this season.

America honors. Solomon Kindley started each game at left guard, while Cade Mays (another Freshman All-American), Ben Cleveland, and Trey Hill each started games at right guard. Jamaree Salyer, Justin Shaffer, D'Marcus Hayes, Owen Condon, and Warren Ericson all gained experience, while early enrollees Warren McClendon and Clay Webb will compete for time.

Spring practice will help the Bulldogs identify the 2019 starter at center. Hill had a baptism by fire at Kentucky when he entered at center after an injury to starter Lamont Gaillard, and Georgia's offense chugged along. Salyer saw action in 13 games at center and tackle, while Shaffer played in 12, and Ericson appeared in three, and they figure to battle for playing time at center. Webb is an additional option at center.

The Bulldogs also return Daniel Gothard, Blake Anderson, and Blake Watson on the offensive line.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The Bulldogs are blessed with both experience and depth on the defensive front. Stalwart Julian Rochester returns for his final season at nose, and he will be complemented by Michael Barnett and Antonio Poole there. Rochester picked up 31 tackles a year ago, while Barnett registered 14.

At tackle, the Bulldogs will be bringing back Tyler Clark, Jordan Davis, and Devonte Wyatt. Clark had 31 stops a year ago, followed by Davis — a 2018 Freshman All-American — with 25, and Wyatt with 19.

The top candidates at end this spring are David Marshall, Malik Herring, Justin Young, and junior college transfer Tramel Walthour. Herring tallied 23 stops a year ago to pace this group. Michail Carter and outside linebacker Brenton Cox also could see reps here.

Converted offensive lineman Netori Johnson, Koby Pyrz, and Kolby Wyatt give Georgia additional options on the interior.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

The Bulldogs will have the ability to assemble several viable rotations this spring with the return of experienced players and the influx of new participants.

Walter Grant led this returning group with 21 tackles, followed by Cox with 20, Adam Anderson with 16, and Robert Beal with 15. Azeez Ojulari saw action in three games, meaning he still has a full-season redshirt remaining if needed.

Junior college transfer Jermaine Johnson and early enrollee Nolan Smith will go through spring camp as well. Smith arrives as the Maxwell Football Club Defensive National High School Player of the Year and the Anthony Muñoz Lineman of the Year.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Despite missing the latter stages of the 2018 season due to injury, Monty Rice ranked third on the squad with 59 tackles. Tae Crowder, a one-time tailback for the Bulldogs, showed that his transition has been a successful one with his 53 stops, including six for loss, and a team-best-tying two interceptions.

Nate McBride, Channing Tindall, and Quay Walker saw most of their action on special teams and will vie for more playing time during the spring, as will Jaden Hunter.

Early enrollees Rian Davis, Nakobe Dean, and Trezmen Marshall will get a jump on 2019 as they go through spring drills. Dean capped his prep career with the high school Butkus Award and the Bobby Dodd National Lineman of the Year Award.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

First-year defensive backs coach Charlton Warren takes over a group that is both experienced and deep.

Safeties Richard LeCounte and J.R. Reed ranked 1-2 for the Bulldogs a year ago with 74 and 66 tackles, respectively. Reed also tied for the team lead with two interceptions, while LeCounte added a Georgia-best two fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles along with one pick.

At cornerback, Tyson Campbell registered 45 tackles and also had two fumble recoveries, including one for a touchdown against Missouri. Eric Stokes added 20 tackles and a blocked punt for a touchdown, while Mark Webb pitched in 14 stops.

The Bulldogs figure to have several options and rotations with the likes of Tyrique McGhee (23 tackles, 1 INT), Otis Reese, Christopher Smith, Ameer Speed, Divaad Wilson, Latavious Brini, and William Poole. Speed and Wilson played in two games and one game in respective redshirt seasons in 2018.

DJ Daniel, Lewis Cine, and Tyrique Stevenson are early enrollees who will gain valuable experience this spring.

Georgia also has Jordon McKinney, Jake Skole, Hugh Nelson, and Cameron Moore in the fold.

SPECIALISTS

Georgia will have experience both at kicker and punter heading into the 2019 campaign.

Kicker Rodrigo Blankenship was 19-of-23 on field goals, perfect on 65 PAT kicks (extending his streak to 154 in a row) and scored a team-best 122 points last year. He also set the school record with 82 touchbacks. Brooks Buce and Jack Podlesny will back him up this spring.

Punter Jake Camarda finished with an average of 42.6 yards, including three punts that covered more than 60 yards. He also served as the Bulldogs' holder on placement kicks. Bill Rubright returns to add punting support.

Georgia's top candidates at snapper are Pyrz, Payne Walker, Steven Nixon, and Palmer Henderson. Herrien is the only Bulldog to date with extensive return experience, with those coming on kickoffs.

The Bulldogs will rely on two-year starter J.R. Reed, who had 66 tackles and two interceptions last season, as a leader of the defense.

A Look At The 2019 Slate

Notre Dame's first-ever trip to Athens, as well as Texas A&M's first trip to Sanford Stadium as a member of the SEC, highlight the Bulldogs' 2019 schedule.

Georgia opens its season on the road at Vanderbilt. This is a unique opener for the Bulldogs: first true road opener since 2013 (L, 38-35 @ #8 Clemson), first opener away from home since 2016 (W, 33-24 vs. #22 North Carolina in Atlanta for Chick-Fil-A Kickoff Game), first opener versus an SEC team since 1995 (W, 42-23 vs. USC) and the first opener at an SEC opponent since 1994 (W, 24-21 @ USC).

Following its home opener versus Murray State and a Week Three game against Arkansas State, Georgia will welcome the Irish to town. The Bulldogs downed #24 Notre Dame in South Bend in 2017 and are 3-0 all-time versus the Irish.

Georgia's home slate includes SEC matchups with South Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri and Texas A&M. This will mark the sixth time the Bulldogs and Aggies have played and first since Georgia topped A&M 44-20 in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport. The Bulldogs blanked the Aggies 42-0 in 1980, the last time the teams played in Athens.

2019 Bulldog Spring Storylines

The Smart Era Rolls Into Its Fourth Season

The Bulldogs start the 2019 season having posted a 24-5 record over the last two years with back-to-back appearances in the SEC Championship Game. A year after winning SEC and Rose Bowl Game titles and advancing to the College Football Playoff National Championship, Georgia earned an invitation to the Allstate Sugar Bowl to conclude its 2018 season.

The Bulldogs welcome back 53 lettermen, including six on offense and seven on defense who ended 2018 in starting roles. Georgia also returns its scoring leader in senior PK Rodrigo Blankenship along with three of its top four rushers, including junior TB D'Andre Swift who went for 1,049 yards on 163 carries (6.4 avg.) and 10 touchdowns to lead the team last year.

Georgia Coaching Staff Reshuffled

The Bulldogs are welcoming two new coaches to the staff and changed the role of another pair. Tight ends coach Todd Hartley, who previously served as the team's Director of Player Personnel and worked on the staff as a student, joined the team to replace Jim Chaney who left for the offensive coordinator position at Tennessee. Secondary coach Charlton Warren is guiding the defensive backs after Mel Tucker took the head coaching position at Colorado. James Coley is now the team's sole offensive coordinator and is still coaching quarterbacks while Dan Lanning is now the defensive coordinator and remains the outside linebackers coach.

Head coach Kirby Smart is going into his fourth year with Georgia as well as Sam Pittman (associated head coach/offensive line), Glenn Schumann (co-defensive coordinator/inside linebackers) and Dell McGee (run game coordinator/running backs). Tray Scott (defensive line) also begins his third year with the Bulldogs and Cortez Hankton starts his second year as receivers coach and will now also be the team's pass game coordinator.

Fromm Returns To Lead Bulldogs

Junior QB Jake Fromm finished his second season as Georgia's starter with the nation's fifth-best Passing Efficiency (171.2) and has directed the team to 24 victories over the last two years. Along with Swift returning in the backfield, the Bulldogs boast four returners on the offensive line, including All-American LT Andrew Thomas. Georgia will have to replace C Lamont Gaillard who was a three-year starter in the middle of the line.

On defense, Georgia will be aiming to fill the vacancy left by All-American and Thorpe Award winner Deandre Baker in the backfield, Jonathan Ledbetter on the line and Juwan Taylor, D'Andre Walker and Natrez Patrick at linebacker. However, the Bulldogs return seven defensive starters, including the top three tacklers in junior DB Richard LeCounte, senior DB J.R. Reed and junior ILB Monty Rice. Georgia ranked 15th nationally in Scoring Defense at 19.2 points/game in 2018 and also welcome back senior ILB Tae Crowder, who was fifth on the team with 53 stops and tied for the unit's lead with two interceptions, as well as sophomore DL Jordan Davis, who was a Freshman All-American thanks to his work in the middle that led to 25 tackles, including 1.5 sacks.

Bulldog Coaching Staff Collects One Of Nation's Top Signing Classes

For the second straight year, Georgia finished with what some have ranked as the country's best recruiting class in 2019, signing 24 prospects in December and February.

Fourteen Early Enrollees Join The Bulldogs

Fourteen early enrollees started school in January and are working out with the team while they take their first classes at Georgia. QB Stetson Bennett (Blackshear, Ga.), DB Lewis Cine (Cedar Hill, Texas), DB DJ Daniel (Griffin, Ga.), LB Rian Davis (Apopka, Fla.), LB Nakobe Dean (Horn Lake, Miss.), TE Ryland Goede (Kennesaw, Ga.), LB Jermaine Johnson (Eden Prairie, Minn.), QB D'Wan Mathis (Belleville, Mich.), LB Trezmen Marshall (Homerville, Ga.), OL Warren McClendon (Brunswick, Ga.), LB Nolan Smith (Savannah, Ga.), DB Tyrique Stevenson (Miami, Fla.), DL Tramel Walthour (Hinesville, Ga.) and OL Clay Webb (Oxford, Ala.) make up a majority of the Bulldogs' 2019 national signing class.

Lettermen, Starters Return From 11-3 Bulldog Team

The Bulldogs are returning six offensive starters (21 lettermen), seven on defense (30 lettermen) and two specialists playing three positions. Junior QB Jake Fromm is back with 28 career starts under his belt. Blocking for Fromm will be four returning starters on the offensive line, with three reserves that have starting experience. The lone departure, however, is a big one: All-SEC center Lamont Gaillard. Additionally, the Bulldogs have holes to fill at tight end and receiver, where they lost 130 receptions from last season.

Defensively, Georgia returns four of its top five tacklers from 2018, including starters Richard LeCounte (DB), J.R. Reed (S) and Tae Crowder (ILB). Seniors Tyler Clark and Julian Rochester will anchor the corps of down linemen, while returning starters Eric Stokes and Tyrique McGhee should bolster the secondary.

Placekicker Rodrigo Blankenship will be chasing a number of school records in his senior season, including Most Career Points Scored and Field-Goal Percentage. Punter Jake Camarda, who also served as the Bulldogs' holder for placement kicks, returns for his sophomore campaign.

OFFENSE

Efficient Signal Callers

* Jake Fromm, a 2018 Manning Award finalist, is 23-5 as a starter, including 8-5 versus Top 25 teams.

* He posted the school's second best single season Completion Percentage at 67.3 in 2018, which was second in the SEC and 12th nationally.

* The Warner Robins, Ga., native finished last year ranked fifth in the country in Passing Efficiency at 171.2, which ranks second in school history.

* In the 2018 regular season finale versus Ga. Tech, Fromm had a career-high four TD passes. Against top-ranked Alabama, he had a streak of 10 straight completions, which tied an SEC Championship Game record.

* His three TD passes versus #9 Florida last year all came on third downs covering 12, 16 and 24 yards. He was named SEC Offensive Player of the Week after going 17-for-24 for 240 yards and three TDs.

* In his career, Fromm has led his team to two comebacks when trailing at the half. One of Georgia's signature wins came with his 2018 Rose Bowl Game performance after the Bulldogs trailed #2 Oklahoma 31-17 at the half and rallied to a 54-48 win in double overtime. Georgia trailed 45-38 with 3:22 remaining in the game before Fromm directed a game-tying drive.

* Fromm's first career start came in 2017 at #24 Notre Dame. Trailing 19-17 with 6:47 left in the contest, Fromm directed a nine play, 63-yard drive to set up the go-ahead field goal. He was 3-for-4 for 45 yards during the drive.

* Candidates for Fromm's backup will include transfer Stetson Bennett, who is in his second stint with the Bulldogs, early enrollee D'Wan Mathis and redshirt sophomore walk-on John Seter.

New Faces In The TE Room

* Todd Hartley, a native of Gray, Ga., returns to his alma mater and will coach the tight ends after spending the last three years at Miami (Fla.) as its tight ends coach/special teams coordinator.

* The Bulldogs will have 6-5, 250-pound Charlie Woerner back along with redshirt freshman John FitzPatrick plus freshmen Ryland Goede (6-6, 240, Kennesaw Mountain HS, Kennesaw, Ga), who is an early enrollee, Brett Seither (6-5, 228, Clearwater Central Catholic, Clearwater, Fla.) and graduate transfer Eli Wolf (Tennessee).

* Wolf, a 6-4, 236-pound native of Minster, Ohio, had five catches for 30 yards and one TD last year for the Volunteers.

* Georgia saw junior Issac Nauta (30 rec., 430 yards, 3 TDs) declare for the NFL draft.

A Look At The Line

* The Bulldogs return four of five starters on the offensive line, including Freshman All-American RT Andrew Thomas. Thomas is joined by rising seniors C Lamont Gaillard and LG Kendall Baker as well as redshirt sophomore RG Ben Cleveland.

* Georgia established school records with 3,876 rushing yards and 42 rushing touchdowns in 2017.

Coming and Going at WR

*Georgia had three wideouts leave for the NFL in senior Terry Godwin (22 rec., 373 yds., 3 TDs) and early entrees Riley Ridley (43 rec., 559 yds., 9 TDs) and Mecole Hardman (35 rec., 543 yds., 7 TDs).

* The Bulldogs added a slew of standout recruits in 6-1, 195-pound Dominick Blaylock (Walton HS Marietta, Ga.), 6-4, 190-pound George Pickens (Hoover HS, Hoover, Ala.) and 6-2, 210-pound Makiya Tongue (University Lab School, Baton Rouge, La.), plus graduate transfer 6-5, 218-pound Lawrence Cager (Miami, Fla.). Cager started 12 games last year for the Hurricanes and had a team-high six touchdowns to go with 21 catches for 374 yards.

* The team's top returning receiver from last year is junior D'Andre Swift (32 rec., 297 yds., 3 TDs.)

DEFENSE

Bulldogs Setting The Tone On Defense

* After ranking as one of the top scoring defenses in 2018, the Bulldogs will have to replace several key pieces of that unit with reinforcements already in the fold.

* Georgia will be without 2018 Jim Thorpe Award winner Deandre Baker, the team's leading pass rusher in D'Andre Walker and veteran defensive lineman Johnathan Ledbetter, who have all moved on to the NFL.

* Still, Georgia welcomes back seasoned standouts J.R. Reed and Richard LeCounte in the secondary, Tyler Clark, Jordan Davis and Julian Rochester in the trenches and Monty Rice and Tae Crowder at linebacker.

* With a year under their belt, sophomores like OLBs Brenton Cox, Adam Anderson and Robert Beal, along with defensive backs Tyson Campbell and Eric Stokes in the secondary, should be hungry to prove their ready for increased playing time.

A Look At the Defensive Coaching Staff

* Outside linebackers coach Dan Lanning, now in his second season, is the Fain & Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator while inside linebackers coach Glenn Schumann is the co-defensive coordinator and begins his fourth year at UGA.

* Additionally, the Bulldogs hired Georgia native and Air Force standout Charlton Warren as the defensive backs coach. Warren has coached at Nebraska, North Carolina, Tennessee and most recently Florida.

* The openings were created when former defensive coordinator/defensive backs coach Mel Tucker left after the regular season to become head coach at Colorado.

* Also, defensive line coach Tray Scott returns for his third season while Scott Fountain is in his second as special teams coordinator.

Reed Leading Defensive Backfield

* With consensus All-American and Thorpe Award winner Deandre Baker headed to the NFL, senior J.R. Reed will be called upon to be the unit's leader. Reed was second on the team with 66 tackles in 2018.

* Junior Richard LeCounte started 13 games last year, led the team with 74 tackles and notched his first career interception at the goal line against top-ranked Alabama and returned it 29 yards. LeCounte had seven tackles and a 32-yard fumble return in the 2018 win over #9 Florida.

* Sophomore Tyson Campbell started 11 games last year, including the first 10, and posted a career-high 11 tackles in the loss at #13 LSU, including eight solo stops.

* Campbell and redshirt sophomore Eric Stokes will be key pieces to the Bulldogs' backfield in 2019. The pair had career highlights in the win at Missouri last season. Campbell started the game by forcing a fumble, recovering it and scampering 64 yards for a touchdown. Stokes blocked a punt and returned it eight yards for another of the Dogs' scores.

Blankenship One Of The Best

* All-SEC Second Team PK Rodrigo Blankenship finished 2018 as the SEC's third-leading scorer on the year with 122 points (19 FGs, 65 PATs). He was a Lou Groza Award semifinalist for the second straight year.

* Honored as one of 11 players nationwide named to the 2018 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

* Has connected on a school record 154 consecutive PATs, topping Blair Walsh's record of 119 (2008-11). His 154 ranks fourth in SEC history for consecutive PATs.

* Second in NCAA with 82 touchbacks out of 96 KOs in 2018. This tops his own school record of 67 from last season.

* Set a Rose Bowl Game record by drilling a career-long 55-yard field goal during the 2OT win over #2 Oklahoma. His performance included a 38-yard FG in overtime during the 2018 matchup.

Bulldogs In Search Of Returners

* Georgia returns sophomore P Jake Camarda, who averaged 42.6 yards per attempt.

* The Bulldogs will be searching for a new returner after Mecole Hardman had a combined 30 punt and kickoff returns last year. He led the SEC in punt returns at 20.1 and was third in the league in kickoff returns at 25.2.

When Georgia looked for a new head football coach after the 2015 season, all arrows pointed to Kirby Smart, former Bulldog player and assistant coach, and longtime Alabama defensive coordinator. Three years later, the decision to bring Smart home has paid handsome rewards.

His impact, along with a stellar group of players who bought into the new system, has put Georgia in the national championship hunt the past two seasons. The Bulldogs in 2018 posted an 11-1 regular season record, a second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and a ranking as high as number four in the College Football Playoff poll. Georgia landed in the prestigious Allstate Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019—the program's tenth all-time appearance in the New Orleans classic. It also extended the Bulldogs' bowl-game streak to a record 22 straight years, second-highest active streak in the country. For his efforts, Smart was a semifinalist in the Maxwell Club George Munger National Coach of the Year balloting and a finalist in the Bobby Dodd Trophy Coach of the Year competition.

Smart's second season in 2017 was a special one, with an 11-1 regular-season record, an SEC championship, a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (College Football Playoff semifinal) and advancement into the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in the program's first appearance. In the SEC championship game, the Bulldogs avenged their only regular-season loss with a 28-7 victory over Auburn. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black.

Both Smart and his players reaped the bounty of their banner 2017 season. He was named George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches, and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA. Roquan Smith earned first-team All-America honors and the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker. Smith, Isaiah Wynn and Sony Michel were all taken in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft, which also claimed seniors Nick Chubb, Lorenzo Carter and Javon Wims in subsequent rounds.

In Smart's first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia made its 20th straight bowl appearance and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Smart has also made an immediate impact in recruiting circles by posting the nation's third-ranked class in 2017, followed by the top ranked 2018 class, and second ranked class in 2019. In addition to his coaching duties, Smart oversees the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting and giving back to needy children and families facing adversity.

Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015. But he still had unfinished business at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled two jobs for a month until January 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of 10 head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma mater.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one College Football Playoff national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC western division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top ten rankings the last eight years in a row.

A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart was one of the nation's most respected defensive coordinators. During his time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant coach. He was also a finalist for the 2015 Broyles Award.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years on the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at UGA (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach on Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. His unit, which featured future NFL players Thomas Brown, Danny Ware and Kregg Lumpkin, averaged 162.2 rushing yards per game. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two future NFL veterans: Corey Webster and Travis Daniels.

As a player, Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a first team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks fifth in UGA annals, and led the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997, five in '98. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season. Smart also scored two points as a collegian. He was the first player in UGA history -- and one of just two Bulldogs since the rule was introduced in 1988 -- to return a blocked PAT kick for two points, having brought one back 88 yards against New Mexico State in his freshman year of 1995.

Under Smart's leadership, 2015 Alabama defense ranked first nationally in rushing defense, third in total defense, and third in scoring defense. .His 2014 Alabama defense ranked, passing fourth nationally against the run. The Crimson Tide ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, while ranking 12th nationally in total defense. He helped junior safety Landon Collins earn unanimous first-team All-America honors while being selected as a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, Thorpe Award and Lott Trophy.

Smart crafted another elite Alabama defense in 2013 after losing six more players to the NFL. The Crimson Tide ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense while ranking fifth in total defense, seventh in rushing defense and 11th in pass defense. He helped mold C.J. Mosley into the nation's best linebacker and winner of the Butkus Award.

Smart retooled the Alabama defense in 2012, molding a unit that lost six starters to the NFL after the 2011 season. The Tide led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rush defense while ranking seventh in pass defense and pass efficiency defense.

Smart's rebuilding job in 2010 was impressive, as the Tide remained one of the nation's elite defensive units while replacing nine starters. Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in scoring defense and fifth in total defense.

The 2009 season was a special one for Smart, as he not only helped lead Alabama to the national championship but also took home the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country. The UA defense led the SEC and ranked second nationally in scoring defense pass efficiency defense, rush defense and total defense.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his BBA degree in Finance from UGA in 1998 and his M.S. in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003. The Bainbridge, Ga., native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga., a 4-year letterwinner, and 2-year starter, on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-2003. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at UGA, when Lycett -- then working in the UGAAA business office -- helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are now the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (May 25, 2012).

James Coley

Offensive Coordinator — Quarterbacks

James Coley, who served as Co-Offensive Coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Georgia in 2018, was promoted to Offensive Coordinator in January, 2019 and continues to coach the Bulldog signal callers.

Coley has been on the UGA coaching staff since Kirby Smart took over as head coach in 2016. He was named Co-Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach at Georgia in 2018 after two seasons coaching the Bulldogs' wide receivers.

Coley was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, victory over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl CFP semifinal, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and 9th nationally in Rushing Offense, 3rd in the SEC in Scoring Offense, 5th in Total Offense, and 4th nationally in Red Zone Offense.

The Bulldogs followed up in 2018 with another SEC Eastern Division championship, 11-win season, and appearance in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Georgia offense finished first in the SEC in total rushing offense, rushing offense per game, and second in the SEC in total offense, touchdowns scored, and scoring offense.

Coley's two seasons of coaching Bulldog receivers produced a pair of NFL draft picks: Isaiah McKenzie (Denver) and Javon Wims (Chicago). In 2018 he coached sophomore quarterback Jake Fromm, whose passing effiency (171.21) and completion percentage (67.3) were both second best in UGA history.

Coley served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Miami from 2013-15. Prior to joining the Miami staff, he held positions as offensive coordinator and tight ends coach (2010-12) and tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator (2008-09) at Florida State.

A native of Miami, he served as an offensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2005-06. His coaching resume also included a stop at 2003 national champion Louisiana State University, where he served as a graduate assistant coach.

Coley earned his bachelor's degree from Florida State in 1997 and his master's degree from LSU in 2004. He and his wife Kenia have two children – Madison and Brady.

Dan Lanning

Fain and Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator — Outside Linebackers

Dan Lanning was named the Fain and Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator in February, 2019, after serving one year as Georgia's outside linebackers coach. He joined the Bulldog staff after two years as inside linebacker coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Memphis.

In his first year at Georgia, Lanning was part of a coaching staff that led the Bulldogs to their second consecutive season with 11 or more wins, second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and appearance in a New Years Six bowl game. The Georgia defense finished second in the SEC in total defense, third in pass defense and opponent third down conversions, and fifth in scoring defense and rushing defense.

Lanning coached 2018 second-team All-SEC OLB D'Andre Walker, who led the team in sacks (7.5) and tackles-for-loss (11.0).

Lanning joined the Memphis staff in 2016 after spending the 2015 season at Alabama as a graduate assistant coach with the outside linebackers. Prior to Alabama, Lanning held positions at Pittsburgh (2011), Arizona State (2012-13) and Sam Houston State (2014).

At Memphis he was part of a staff that that led the Tigers to their third 10-win season in school history and finished in the top five in the country in turnovers gained two years in a row. On that team, Lanning coached two-time first team All-American Athletic Conference linebacker Genard Avery.

At Alabama, Lanning was a member of the coaching staff that guided the Crimson Tide to the 2015 College Football Playoff (CFP) national title. Alabama defeated Clemson 45-40 in the CFP championship game in Glendale, Ariz. The Crimson Tide posted a 14-1 record and won the Southeastern Conference crown with a 29-15 victory over Florida in the league championship game.

Prior to his one season in Tuscaloosa, Lanning spent the 2014 campaign at Sam Houston State, where he helped guide the Bearkats to an 11-5 record, the Southland Conference crown and an FCS playoff appearance. Sam Houston State, playing in its fourth-straight FCS playoffs, advanced to the semifinal round before falling to eventual national champion North Dakota State.

At Sam Houston State, Lanning coached the defensive backs and served as the program's co-recruiting coordinator, with a special recruiting emphasis on Houston, south Texas and the Lone Star State's Golden Triangle area. Lanning spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons on head coach Todd Graham's staff at Arizona. He began his Sun Devils career as a grad assistant in 2012, before moving to the on-campus recruiting coordinator/defensive assistant in 2013.

A Richmond, Mo., native, Lanning played linebacker at William Jewell College, located in Liberty, Mo. He earned two B.S. degrees in physical education and secondary education in 2008. Two years later, Lanning completed coursework for his master's degree in secondary administration from William Woods University in Fulton, Mo.

Lanning and his wife, Sauphia, have three sons: Caden, Kniles and Titan.

Scott Fountain

Special Teams Coordinator

Scott Fountain joined the full time, on-field staff, in 2018, after serving as a special teams analyst for the 2017 season and a short time in the off-season as special teams coordinator at Mississippi State.

In 2018 Georgia had two of the SEC's top specialists in kick returner Mecole Hardman and PK Rodrigo Blankenship. Hardman led the SEC in average punt return (20.1), was fifth in average kick return (25.2), and was named to the ESPN.com All-American first team. Blankenship earned second-team All-SEC honors after finishing fifth in the SEC in scoring by kickers (8.7 ppg). He also posted 82 kickoff touchbacks and ran his string of successful PAT kicks to a school-record 154.

Fountain also contributed to the Bulldogs' emergence in special teams in 2017. Hardman averaged 25.3 yards per kick return, second-best in the SEC and 21st nationally. Georgia's coverage teams also held opponents to 5.9 yards per punt return and 19.5 yards per kick return, both improved numbers from the previous year.

Additionally, Blankenship made 20 of his 23 field goal attempts this season, including two kicks over 50 yards in the College Football Playoffs. He made all 63 of his PAT attempts, kicked 67 touchbacks and was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award. Punter Cameron Nizialek averaged 45 yards per punt (9th nationally) and was a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award.

Before joining Georgia's staff, Fountain had spent the previous eight years assisting the football program at Auburn, the first four as the Tigers' player personnel director and the latter four as an on-field assistant, coordinating special teams and coaching tight ends. From 2014-16, Fountain coached kicker Daniel Carlson, a three-time Lou Groza Award finalist.

Fountain, a part of three SEC championship teams, led Auburn's administrative and recruiting efforts from 2009-12. He followed Gene Chizik to Auburn after spending two seasons (2007-08) on Chizik's staff at Iowa State as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Fountain earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Samford in 1988 and a master's degree in educational leadership from Florida State in 1998. He is married to the former Rosie Hidalgo and the couple has four sons: Brookes, Hunter, Tanner and Skyler.

Cortez Hankton

Pass Game Coordinator — Wide Receivers

Former NFL wide receiver Cortez Hankton was named Pass Game Coordinator and Wide Receivers Coach in February of 2019 after serving the 2018 season as an assistant coach in charge of the receivers. He joined the Georgia coaching staff in February, 2018, after coaching wide receivers at Vanderbilt for three seasons.

In his first year at Georgia, Hankton was part of a coaching staff that led the Bulldogs to their second straight season with 11 or more wins, second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and appearance in a New Years Six bowl game. The Georgia offense finished second in the in the SEC in Scoring Offense and Hankton coached several big play receivers in Terry Godwin, Mecole Hardman and Riley Ridley, who combined for 1,475 receiving yards.

During his three seasons at Vanderbilt, Hankton coached veteran receivers C.J. Duncan and Trent Sherfield, Caleb Scott and Kalija Lipscomb. In 2016 this foursome combined for 129 catches and 1,715 yards. In 2017, Duncan and Sherfield combined for 102 receptions, 1,246 yards and 10 TDs.

Prior to his tenure at Vandy, Hankton coached receivers for three seasons at Dartmouth (2012-14). During that time, he helped the Big Green to a 20-10 overall record, including an 8-2 mark in 2014.

A graduate of Texas Southern, Hankton was signed as an undrafted rookie free agent in April, 2003, by the Jacksonville Jaguars. He caught 17 passes for 166 yards as a rookie, and in four years with the Jaguars, he caught 34 passes for 310 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Hankton signed with the Minnesota Vikings in 2007 and spent the entire 2008 season on injured reserve with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Hankton earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Texas Southern in 2002, where he set school season and career records for receiving yards. A four-year starter and two-year captain, he was Texas Southern's team MVP and an All-SWAC honoree as a junior and senior.

A native of New Orleans, Hankton is the son of Cortez Sr. and Sherome Hankton, both officers in the city's police department. Hankton was a standout athlete at St. Augustine High School in New Orleans.

Hankton and his wife, the former Shon Holder, were married in July, 2014. They are the parents of sons Cortez "Trip" III and Cruz

Todd Hartley

Assistant Coach — Tight Ends

Todd Hartley, a University of Georgia graduate who has also been a full-time staff member with the Bulldog football program, was named tight ends coach on January 14, 2019.

Hartley, a native of Gray, Ga., served as Special Teams Coordinator and Tight Ends Coach at Miami from 2016-18. During his tenure with the Hurricanes, Hartley coached tight end David Njoku before he was taken in the 2017 NFL Draft as the 29th overall pick. He also tutored tight end Chris Herndon, a fourth-round selection by the New York Jets in the 2018 draft.

Most recently, Hartley signed tight end Brevin Jordan, who was ESPN.com's top ranked tight end in the 2018 class and No. 20 on the 2018 ESPN 300 list. Jordan finished his first season as an All-ACC Second Team selection after hauling in 32 passes for 287 yards and four touchdowns.

Hartley arrived in Miami after serving as Georgia's Director of Player Personnel in 2015. Before his return to Georgia, Hartley spent four years at Marshall serving in a variety of roles including tight ends and safeties coach and recruiting coordinator from 2011-14.

In 2014 at Marshall, Hartley coached punter Tyler Williams to First Team All-Conference USA honors and tight end Eric Frohnapfel to C-USA and honorable mention All-Conference USA honors, making it the fourth straight year he coached at least one all-league student-athlete.

Hartley originally joined the Bulldogs as a student assistant at the end of the 2005 season and worked with the offense and special teams until the spring of 2008 while he was an undergraduate. He graduated from UGA with a degree in health and physical education in May, 2008. He and his wife, Jessica, and four children: Tucker, Tenley, Teagan, and Tatum.

Dell McGee

Run Game Coordinator — Running Backs

Dell McGee was named Run Game Coordinator and Running Backs Coach after one season as Assistant Head Coach. He had served the previous two seasons as an assistant coach, overseeing running backs.

In his three seasons at UGA, McGee coached four 1,000-yard rushers: Nick Chubb (1,345 in 2017 and 1,130 in 2016); Sony Michel (1,161 in 2017); D'Andre Swift (1,049 in 2018); and Elijah Holyfield (1,018 in 2018). In the 2018 NFL draft, Michel was the 31st overall player picked (New England) and Chubb was 35th player chosen (Cleveland. Chubb and Michel finished their careers as the Nos. 2 and 3 career rushers in UGA history, amassing over 8,400 combined yards and 87 touchdowns. Additionally, Rivals.com named McGee the 2018 National Recruiter of the Year after the Bulldogs signed the consensus No. 1-rated recruiting class.

In 2018, Georgia finished first in the SEC (16th nationally) in Rushing Offense and second (14th nationally) in Scoring Offense.

Just 10 days before he came to UGA, McGee had led Georgia Southern to victory in its first-ever bowl game (GoDaddy Bowl) as interim head coach.

McGee served as running backs coach at GSU in 2014-15, when the Eagles led the nation in rushing offense—384 yards per game in 2014 and 363 yards per game in 2015. GSU won the Sun Belt Championship in 2014 and had four backs top the 600-yard rushing mark in 2015. McGee had been promoted to associate head coach early in the 2015 season.

Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, McGee served one season at Auburn, his alma mater, where he worked as an analyst in 2013 when the Tigers reached the BCS Championship Game.

McGee developed Carver-Columbus High School into a perennial powerhouse as the Tigers rattled off seven straight seasons with 10 or more wins, including a perfect 15-0 season en route to the Georgia state title in 2007.

McGee was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner at Auburn from 1992-95. The Arizona Cardinals picked McGee in the 5th round of the 1996 NFL Draft and he remained with the organization through 1998.

McGee and his wife Linda have a son, Austin.

Sam Pittman

Associate Head Coach — Offensive Line

Sam Pittman was named Associate Head Coach in February of 2019 after serving the previous three seasons as an assistant coach, overseeing the Bulldogs' offensive line. He had come to Athens after coaching three years at Arkansas as offensive line coach, associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

In 2018, Pittman was part of a staff that led the Bulldogs to their second consecutive season with 11 or more wins, second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and appearance in a New Years Six bowl game (Allstate Sugar). Georgia finished first in the SEC (16th nationally) in Rushing Offense and second (14th nationally) in Scoring Offense (37.9 ppg).

Pittman is widely regarded among the nation's best offensive line coaches and recruiters. Since 2013, eight players he has coached have been drafted and three others have signed free agent contracts. In the past two seasons, four of his players have earned either All-America and/or All-SEC status: Isaiah Wynn, Solomon Kindley and Andrew Thomas in 2017, as well as Thomas and Lamont Gaillard in 2018.

Of Pittman's eight drafted offensive linemen in 2013-14, Ja'Wuan James (Tennessee) was selected 19th overall by Miami in 2014 and Travis Swanson became the highest Arkansas center draft pick in school history when he was picked 76th overall by Detroit. In 2013, Jonathan Cooper of UNC was the seventh overall pick by Arizona.

Pittman previously served as offensive line coach at Tennessee (2012), Associate Head Coach and offensive line coach at North Carolina (2007-11), and offensive line coach at Northern Illinois (2003-06).

Pittman played at Pittsburg State, where he was a first-team NAIA All-American and twice earned all-conference recognition. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1986 and was inducted into the PSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998. He is married to his wife, Jamie.

Glenn Schumann

Co-Defensive Coordinator — Inside Linebackers

Glenn Schumann was named Co-Defensive Coordinator & Inside Linebackers coach at Georgia in February of 2019 after three seasons as Assistant Coach in charge of the Bulldogs' inside linebackers. He came to UGA after serving two years as Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel at the University of Alabama.

In 2018 he was part of a coaching staff that led Georgia to its second consecutive season with 11 or more wins, second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and appearance in a New Years Six bowl game (Allstate Sugar). The Georgia defense finished second in the SEC in total defense (314.3 ypg), third in pass defense (180.3) and opponent third down conversions, and fifth in scoring defense (19.2) and rushing defense (134.0).

Schumann's star pupil over his first two years was Roquan Smith, who capped his junior season by winning the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, in addition to being named SEC Defensive Player of the Year. In 2017, Smith was a consensus All-American, a finalist for the Nagurski and Bednarik Awards, and finished 10th in the Heisman Trophy voting, and he led the Chicago Bears in tackles as an NFL rookie in 2018.

Schumann spent eight years with the Crimson Tide, first as an undergraduate analyst (2008-11), then as a graduate assistant (Dec. 2011-14) and for his final season as Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel. During his time there, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one College Football Playoff national title, three SEC crowns, and was ranked in the nation's final top 10 eight years in a row.

Born in Valdosta, Ga., Schumann graduated from McKinney Boyd High School in McKinney, Texas, where he lettered in both football and basketball. He earned his bachelor of arts degree from Alabama in December, 2011, and a masters in sports management from the Capstone in December, 2013. He and his wife Lauren were married in the summer of 2015.

Tray Scott

Assistant Coach — Defensive Line

Tray Scott was named defensive line coach at UGA on February 10, 2017, after serving two years in a similar position at the University of North Carolina (2015-16).

Scott was briefly hired as the defensive line coach at Ole Miss in January, 2017, before coming to Georgia.

In his second year at Georgia, Scott was part of a coaching staff that led the Bulldogs to their second straight season with 11 or more wins, second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and appearance in a New Years Six bowl game. The Georgia defense finished second in the SEC is total defense, third in pass defense and opponent third down conversions, and fifth in scoring defense and rushing defense.

In his two campaigns in Chapel Hill, Scott helped UNC reach back-to-back bowl games and the 2015 ACC Championship Game. Scott's top player during his tenure at UNC was Nazair Jones, an All-ACC tackle who had 70 stops, 9.5 for lost yardage and 2.5 QB sacks as a junior in 2016. Jones was a third-round selection by the Seattle Seahawks in the 2017 NFL Draft.

Prior to moving to North Carolina, Scott served two years (2013-14) as defensive line coach at UT Martin. He also held positions as defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss (2012), assistant coach at Arkansas State (2010-11). Scott was also a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech, from the fall of 2008 until the spring of 2010.

As a player at Arkansas Tech, Scott was a four-year letterman from 2003-07. He helped Tech to a 24-8 record from 2004-06, including a 10-2 overall mark and a national playoff appearance in 2004. Scott prepped at Crossett High School in his hometown of Crossett, Ark.

Scott earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Arkansas Tech in 2008. He also received his Master's degree from Arkansas Tech in 2010. He is married to the former Sarah Fancher and the couple has a son, Julian Thomas Scott, born on May 22, 2017.

Charlton Warren

Assistant Coach — Defensive Backs

Charlton Warren was named Assistant Coach at Georgia on January 19, 2019, after coaching the secondary at the University level for more than 13 years.

Warren, a native of Atlanta, Ga., spent the 2018 season coaching cornerbacks at Florida and the 2017 season coaching Tennessee's defensive backs and serving as the program's special teams coordinator. In addition to stops at North Carolina (2015-16) and Nebraska (2014), Warren worked at the U.S. Air Force Academy, his alma mater, from 2005 to 2013 in a variety of roles.

Warren was a three-year letterman at defensive back for Air Force, and helped the program achieve consecutive 10-win seasons in 1997 and 1998.

In Warren's one season on staff, Florida's defense made dramatic improvements in 2018, highlighted by its ranking 11th nationally in takeaways (26). The Gators' pass efficiency defense (112.69 - 17th), scoring defense (20.0 - 20th) and sacks per game (2.85 - T-20th) also all improved with Warren's help. Off the field, Warren proved to be one of the Gators' top recruiters. He is credited with helping Florida sign Trey Dean III in 2018 and defensive backs Jaydon Hill, Chester Kimbrough and Chris Steele in 2019.

Prior to joining Nebraska in 2014, Warren began his coaching career at his alma mater, Air Force, where he spent nine seasons beginning in 2005. He spent three seasons as secondary coach/recruiting coordinator, three seasons as co-defensive coordinator/secondary coach/recruiting coordinator before he was promoted to associate HC/defensive coordinator in 2012.

Warren graduated from Air Force in 1999 with a degree in Human Factors Engineering. While stationed at Warner Robins AFB from 2000-03, he earned an MBA from Georgia College and State University. Before returning to the Academy in 2005, Warren was stationed at Eglin AFB, Fla., as an air-to-ground weapons program manager for the Air Armament Center.

During his time at Air Force, Warren was a three-year letterman at defensive back for the Falcons, helping the program achieve consecutive 10-win seasons in 1997 and 1998, including a 12-1 record and an outright conference title in 1998.

Warren is married to Jocelyn Warren and the couple have three children: Jayree, Teya and Chase.

Scott Sinclair

Director of Strength & Conditioning

Scott Sinclair was named Director of Strength and Conditioning on January 6, 2015, after serving two years in the same position at Marshall University.

Sinclair joined the Marshall program in January, 2013, working with both football and track and field programs and was part of a program that had three 10-win football seasons. He came to Marshall after nine years as an associate director of strength and conditioning at the University of Central Florida (UCF), where he worked with the football program along with baseball and track & field. With the football program, he was directly responsible for the speed and agility programs in addition to the program's administrative duties.

In 2012, he was awarded the highest honor in his field when he was certified as a master strength and conditioning coach (MSCC) at the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association's national conference. The title of master strength and conditioning coach represents professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise as well as longevity in the field. He is also CPR/AED certified.

Prior to UCF, he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Georgia Tech from 2001-03. While with the Yellow Jackets, he worked as the assistant director of player development for the Yellow Jackets' football squad. From 1999-2001, he worked in the Wake Forest strength and conditioning department.

A native of Rockingham, N.C., he earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Guilford College in 1999. Sinclair, a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, received a master's degree in physical education from UCF in 2006. Sinclair and his wife, Farrah, have one son, Creed, and one daughter, Asher.

No. 3 Georgia 45, Austin Peay 0

Sept. 1, 2018 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS — A stout defensive effort and an explosive offense lifted Georgia to a 45-0 victory over Austin Peay in the season opener at Sanford Stadium in front of a capacity crowd of 92,746 and an ESPN national television audience.

While the defense held the Governors scoreless, every first-half offensive possession for the Bulldogs resulted in a score. The first points of the season came on kicker Rodrigo Blankenship's 34-yard field goal.

Following the first of many stands from the Bulldog defense, the Georgia offense conducted an 11-play, 80-yard march, featuring 46 total yards from tailback D'Andre Swift. Receiver Riley Ridley claimed the first touchdown of the season, a 10-yard connection with quarterback Jake Fromm, and a 10-0 lead after Blankenship's PAT.

Thirty-nine seconds later, linebacker D'Andre Walker placed the ball back into the hands of the Bulldog offense, recovering a fumble from Austin Peay quarterback Jeremiah Oatsvall. The next play, Swift ran for an 8-yard touchdown and a 17-0 margin with Blankenship's kick.

In the second quarter, quarterback Justin Fields entered and handed off to receiver Demetris Robertson. With a pair of blocks from the tight end tandem of Isaac Nauta and Charlie Woerner, the open field presented itself for the Cal transfer, cementing his first Georgia score on a career-high 72-yard run. Blankenship's kick pushed the lead to 24-0.

After a three-and-out from Austin Peay, a 9-play, 69-yard drive was finalized with a hand-off to tailback Elijah Holyfield, who eluded multiple Governors on his way to the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown. Blankenship tacked on the PAT for the 31-0 edge.

Receiver Mecole Hardman closed out the half for the Bulldogs, using his speed to out-run the Austin Peay secondary and complete a 59-yard throw-and-catch with Fromm. Blankenship added the extra point to make it 38-0.

In the second half, a 36-yard run from tailback James Cook positioned the Bulldogs in Austin Peay territory, setting up a Fields-to-Nauta touchdown pass of 12 yards. Blankenship's PAT sealed the final at 45-0.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We're happy to get the win. It was a good way to start. The kids played hard. But there are a lot of things we can improve on. We knew we couldn't get better until we played a game. We'll learn from this one, learn from our mistakes. We'll get some things ironed out."

Riley Ridley scores Georgia's first touchdown of the 2018 season on a 10-yard pass from Jake Fromm. The Bulldogs scored on every first-half possession against Austin Peay.

Worth Noting…

• The shutout marked Georgia's first in a season opener since 2003 against Clemson. Before Austin Peay, the most recent shutout for the Bulldogs came against Tennessee in 2017 (41-0), and the most recent team to be held scoreless for two quarters was Alabama in the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

• The Bulldog defense held the Governors to 152 total yards and seven first downs on 50 plays. In the first half alone, Georgia limited Austin Peay to 81 yards with one trip to the red zone.

• Offensive production was spread between 11 receivers from three different quarterbacks: sophomore Jake Fromm and freshmen Justin Fields and Matthew Downing.

• D'Andre Swift paced the backfield with eight carries and a career-high four receptions. The Philadelphia, Penn., native primarily shared responsibilities with juniors Brian Herrien and Elijah Holyfield and freshman James Cook.

• Demetris Robertson's lone carry brought a 72-yard career-best touchdown, the longest run by a Bulldog since Sony Michel went 75 yards in the 2017 Rose Bowl against Oklahoma.

• Georgia had six first-time starters on offense and defense, including one true freshman, as well as true freshman punter Jake Camarda: redshirt freshman OT Isaiah Wilson, junior WR Tyler Simmons, senior WR (and team captain for Austin Peay) Ahkil Crumpton, senior OLB D'Andre Walker, freshman DB Tyson Campbell and sophomore OLB Walter Grant.

No. 3 Georgia 41, No. 24 South Carolina 17

Sept. 8, 2018 • Williams-Brice Stadium • Columbia, S.C.

COLUMBIA, S.C. — No. 3 Georgia routed 24th-ranked South Carolina 41-17 in front of a crowd of 83,140 at Williams-Brice Stadium and a CBS national audience.

The Bulldogs improved to 2-0 overall and earned their first Southeastern Conference win over USC (1-1, 0-1). The victory marked Georgia's seventh win in 30 games against ranked opponents under Coach Kirby Smart.

With an efficient 15-for-18 passing clip for 194 yards and a touchdown, quarterback Jake Fromm guided Georgia to its highest point production in Columbia, a series that dates to 1894.

Five Bulldogs made trips to the end zone: linebacker Juwan Taylor; tailbacks D'Andre Swift, Elijah Holyfield, and Brian Herrien; and receiver Mecole Hardman, who also led the receiving corps with six catches for 103 yards – both career bests.

The Georgia defense produced a 7-0 Bulldog lead within the game's first minute. A deflected pass from Jake Bentley intended for running back Rico Dowdle found the hands of defensive back Deandre Baker, who returned it for 55 yards but fumbled inches before the end zone. Taylor trailed the play and completed the touchdown by scooping up the loose ball.

After a South Carolina three-and-out, a 30-yard Fromm-Hardman completion and a 15-yard Gamecock penalty positioned Georgia in the red zone. The next play, Swift sealed the two-touchdown lead with an untouched 17-yard rush.

After a South Carolina touchdown pass, kicker Rodrigo Blankenship, soon followed with a 45-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. The Bulldogs and the Gamecocks traded second-quarter field goals —Blankenship's coming on a 44-yarder as time expired —for a 20-10 halftime edge for the Bulldogs.

Georgia opened the second half with Fromm finding Hardman for a 34-yrd scoring pass. Holyfield and Herrien closed the scoring with third-quarter touchdown runs of five and 15 yards, respectively.

Blankenship went 5-for-5 on extra points.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"At the end of the day, they (South Carolina) just wore down ... You could just see the air coming out of them a little bit as they wore down physically. The big stop of the game to me was either the first or second drive in the second half. We had third-and-2 or third-and-3 and stopped them. They had to punt it right back to us. The defense was right back out there. That takes its toll. I think our conditioning showed through. A lot of credit goes to Coach (Scott) Sinclair and the strength staff. They worked those kids hard all summer, so they could prepare for second halves like that."

Mecole Hardman led Georgia with a career-high 103 receiving yards on six catches and one touchdown vs. the Gamecocks.

Worth Noting…

• Georgia carried a 20-10 advantage to halftime and posted a 41-17 win, marking the most points it has ever scored in Columbia in the series that dates back to 1894. The 24-point margin of victory was the most in Columbia since 1971. Georgia improved to 2-0 (1-0 SEC) on the year and has won four in a row over USC.

• Junior WR Mecole Hardman established a career-high for receiving yards with 103 on six catches. Hardman was the first Bulldog receiver to have a 100-yard game since Isaiah McKenzie (103) vs. TCU in the 2016 Liberty Bowl win.

• Senior DB Deandre Baker made his first interception of the year and the sixth of his career in the first quarter, returning it 55 yards before dropping it before crossing the goal line. Senior ILB Juwan Taylor scooped up the fumble and scored to put Georgia up 7-0. Taylor's touchdown marked Georgia's first INT returned for a TD since Maurice Smith took one 35 yards vs. Auburn in 2016.

• Junior PK Rodrigo Blankenship gave the Bulldogs a 17-7 lead late in the opening period on a 45-yard field goal and then made a 44-yarder as the first half expired. He is now 3-for-3 on the year and 12-for-18 in his career from 40-plus yards. He logged six more touchbacks, improving to 14-14 on the season.

• Sophomores DB Richard LeCounte and ILB Monty Rice led the team with career highs in tackles: 10 and 8, respectively.

No. 3 Georgia 49, Middle Tennessee 7

Sept. 15, 2018 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS — Forty-nine points from the offense and special teams, plus a stingy Georgia defense led to a resounding 49-7 victory for the No. 3-ranked Bulldogs against Middle Tennessee State in front of 92,746 fans at Sanford Stadium and an ESPN2 national television audience.

The Georgia offense finished the contest with 484 total yards, including 382 in the first half. Averaging 45.3 points per game this season, the Bulldogs have scored 40-plus points through three consecutive outings.

Tailback Elijah Holyfield led the rushing attack, becoming the first Bulldog to record a 100-yard game this season, reaching the mark in the first half. Holyfield was complemented by quarterback Jake Fromm, who threw for an efficient 10-for-12 clip with three touchdowns and 128 yards. Receiver Jeremiah Holloman paced the pass game with 90 yards on three catches, becoming the third different Bulldog receiver to do so in as many games.

The Bulldogs opened the contest with a seven-play, 87-yard drive, highlighted by Holyfield's career-long 66-yard rush. Three plays later, tight end Charlie Woerner provided a block to set up the Fromm-Mecole Hardman 5-yard touchdown connection. Hardman leads the receivers with three touchdowns this season.

After defensive back Deandre Baker snagged his second interception of the season, which he returned for 26 yards, Holloman cemented the 14-0 lead with his first career touchdown catch.

To open the second quarter, receiver Tyler Simmons broke free for a career-long 56-yard rushing touchdown, the first of his career. Hardman widened the Georgia lead to 28 on a 70-yard punt return for a touchdown, the first for the Bulldogs since Isaiah McKenzie in 2016.

Receiver Riley Ridley capped a 4-play, 74-yard drive with a 12-yard touchdown on a pass from Fromm for a 35-7 advantage. Freshman quarterback Justin Fields sent the Bulldogs into intermission with the first rushing touchdown of his career, a 15-yarder.

Georgia tacked on another career-first touchdown with a 9-yard pass from Fromm to receiver Jayson Stanley in the third quarter.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Every player who goes in needs to perform like a starter. There's no room for error because we're one play away from those guys. I like the toughness we show during the week. We've created a standard the last couple of years, and now we're owning it with players holding other players accountable."

Jayson Stanley celebrates with teammate Demetris Robertson after his third-quarter touchdown reception against Middle Tennessee State.

Worth Noting…

• The 49-7 victory over Middle Tennessee gives Georgia its third consecutive win with at least 40 points. The Bulldogs last did that when they started the 2012 season with five straight 40-plus-point games.

• Junior TB Elijah Holyfield had a career-long 66-yard run on the Bulldogs' first possession to set up a touchdown three plays later. Holyfield completed the half with eight carries for a career-high 100 yards. The last backs to hit the century mark were Sony Michel (181) and Nick Chubb (145) in the Rose Bowl Game win over Oklahoma last season.

• Junior WR Tyler Simmons took a hand-off at the beginning of the second quarter a career-long 56 yards for his first career touchdown of any kind. This capped a season-best scoring drive of 94 yards, which was six plays and lasted 2:40, and was Georgia's longest scoring drive since the Bulldogs went 98 yards on 11 plays in 6:34 versus Auburn in 2014.

• Junior WR Mecole Hardman, who led the SEC in punt returns/yards/average last year, returned a punt 70 yards in the second quarter for his first career PR for a touchdown to give the Bulldogs a 28-0 edge. Isaiah McKenzie was the last Georgia player to return a punt for a score after he went 82 yards versus UL-Lafayette in 2016.

No. 2 Georgia 43, Missouri 29

Sept. 22, 2018 • Memorial Stadium • Columbia, Mo.

COLUMBIA, Mo. — A defensive first half and offensive onslaught in the second half pushed second-ranked Georgia past Missouri 43-29 at Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium in front of a nationally televised ESPN audience.

The Bulldogs headed into the half with a 20-7 lead after defense and special teams dominated the early pace of the game.

On a third-and-9 play, defensive back Tyson Campbell stripped Missouri's Albert Okwuegbunam and scoop-scored for a 64-yard fumble return to put the first points on the board.

After the Tigers evened the score, kicker Rodrigo Blankenship connected on a 44-yard field goal to move Georgia back in front 10-7. On the ensuing drive, the Georgia defense produced another turnover – this time a 43-yard interception return by linebacker Tae Crowder. The takeaway turned into another Blankenship try, a 21-yard field goal, for the 13-7 lead early in the second quarter.

Special teams then made its splash later in the second to put the Bulldogs up 20-7. Georgia bombarded Missouri punter Corey Fatony with an defensive back Eric Stokes blocking the kick and scooping up the football for an 8-yard touchdown.

A back-and-forth third quarter saw both teams trade touchdowns. First, Georgia got a 33-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jake Fromm to receiver Riley Ridley to cap a 5-play, 59-yard drive. Mizzou responded with a long drive and score, but the Bulldogs struck on their second play from scrimmage. Fromm threw a jump ball to receiver Jeremiah Holloman, who eluded the sideline to run free for a 61-yard touchdown.

The Tigers got the last touchdown in the third to put the score at 33-22, and the scoring commenced immediately in the fourth quarter. On the first play, Fromm connected with receiver Mecole Hardman for a 54-yard touchdown pass to finish the Bulldogs' longest drive of the game that spanned 77 yards in just five plays.

Missouri quarterback Drew Lock pulled the game to a 40-29 margin on an 11-yard run with 10:47 left in the game, but the Bulldogs capped the game with a 40-yard Blankenship field goal with less than two minutes remaining.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"The flow of the game was about what I thought it would be. There were a lot of emotional big plays. I didn't see us having the big plays in the turnover game with the fumble recovery and blocked punt, but they were really big plays. We struggled some to stop the run today, which is not indicative of the defense we want to have, and we struggled to run the ball. When you have that combination then you are going struggle some and we did. Give Missouri credit, they have a good football team. We knew that coming in. I've always respected them. They've won nine of the last 10 games and you don't do that by accident."

Coach Kirby Smart congratulates defensive back Eric Stokes after his second-quarter punt block and return for a touchdown against Missouri.

Worth Noting…

• For the fourth straight game this year, Georgia (4-0, 2-0 SEC) scored at least 40 points for the first time since the 2012 season. In 2012, Georgia opened the year with five straight games of scoring at least 40 apiece. This season, Georgia now is averaging 44.5 points a game. The school record is 37.8, set in 2012.

• Missouri ran a total of 85 plays, which is four more than No. 2 Oklahoma ran in the Rose Bowl double-overtime game, the previous high against a Kirby Smart team.

• Redshirt freshman DB Eric Stokes' blocked punt for a TD marked the first since CJ Byrd in 2006 against UAB. Alongside freshman DB Tyson Campbell's 68-yard fumble return, it was the first time since the 2015 road game at Tennessee that Georgia has scored a defensive TD and special teams TD in the same game. That year, Leonard Floyd had a 96-yard fumble return and Reggie Davis had a 70-yard punt return.

• The Georgia defense held senior QB Drew Lock without a touchdown in the air. Senior OLB D'Andre Walker had two forced fumbles and two sacks of Lock. The Bulldogs had one sack coming in to the game, which also belonged to Walker.

• After a 6-for-14 first half, sophomore QB Jake Fromm went 7-for-9 for 194 yards and three touchdowns in the second.

No. 2 Georgia 38, Tennessee 12

Sept. 29, 2018 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS — No. 2 Georgia knocked off Tennessee 38-12 in front of a crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

The Bulldogs improved to 5-0 overall and 3-0 in Southeastern Conference play with the victory against the Volunteers, who fell to 2-3 and 0-2.

With the Volunteers entering the contest averaging 205 yards on the ground, Georgia limited Tennessee to 66 rushing yards while producing five rushing touchdowns on offense.

The rushing attack featured the first multi-touchdown outings on the ground for tailback D'Andre Swift and quarterback Justin Fields. Swift found the end zone on a 1-yard pitch in the second quarter and later returned with a 14-yard score in the final period. Fields, who rushed five times for 45 yards, scored on a 12-yard scamper in the third quarter and followed with a 15-yard touchdown run to cement the victory.

Georgia opened the game's scoring following a fortuitous bounce. On third-and-9 in the first quarter, Tennessee linebacker Darrell Taylor forced the ball out of quarterback Jake Fromm's hands, but the fumble found tight end Isaac Nauta, who ran for a 31-yard touchdown.

After kicker Rodrigo Blankenship booted a 43-yard field goal in the second quarter, Fields jump started a scoring drive to end the half, contributing a 13-yard run. Fromm continued it, connecting with receivers Riley Ridley and Jeremiah Holloman for 12 yards apiece. Swift finalized the 17-0 halftime margin with his first touchdown run.

Back from intermission, Georgia resumed on offense with a 10-play, 75-yard drive capped off by Fields' touchdown with an elevated horizontal dive into the end zone. The Volunteers then connected on passing touchdowns of 37 and 35 yards to cut the lead to 24-12 (as Georgia denied both two-point conversions).

The Bulldogs drove 75 yards in 7:39, finished by Swift's second touchdown, for a 31-12 lead. On the ensuing Tennessee drive, linebacker D'Andre Walker forced a fumble recovered by linebacker Juwan Taylor, and Fields sealed the decision with his 15-yard score.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We struggled at times. We didn't hit some of the plays we thought we could have. We must execute at a higher level to be successful. There were times when we didn't have much movement up front. But when we had to play well in the second half, we challenged them and they did so. It's big when you answer a challenge, but it shouldn't have to come to that. We preach good habits, competitiveness, physicality."

The Bulldogs held Tennessee to 66 yards rushing and 209 total yards.

• The Bulldogs scored 38 points in their win over Tennessee to improve to 5-0 overall, 3-0 in the SEC. Georgia has tallied 216 points for the year, for an average of 43.2. Georgia's point total through five games is the most since 2014 (225 and that squad was 4-1).

• Georgia's first points came in an unorthodox fashion. Junior TE Isaac Nauta scooped up a sophomore QB Jake Fromm fumble and ran it 31 yards for a touchdown on a fumble advance to give Georgia a 7-0 edge at the 8:52 mark in the first period. This marks the third consecutive SEC game that the Bulldogs have scored their first touchdown on a return following a fumble.

• Fromm completed the game 16-for-22 for 185 yards and got his 19th consecutive start at QB. Freshman QB Justin Fields also took some snaps and finished 1-for-2 for five yards and ran the ball five times for 45 yards, including scoring runs of 12 and 15 yards.

• Senior OLB D'Andre Walker had five stops, including a sack, and a forced fumble. Walker has 13 tackles on the year with five tackles for loss and four sacks.

• Junior DB Tyrique McGhee made his third career start and first since the 2017 Tennessee game. Freshman Cade Mays started at RG in place of the injured Ben Cleveland.

No. 2 Georgia 41, Vanderbilt 13

Oct. 6, 2018 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS — Second-ranked Georgia Bulldogs remained undefeated with a 41-13 win over Vanderbilt in front of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and am SEC Network television audience.

Five different Bulldogs (6-0, 3-0) produced touchdowns, three through the air from quarterback Jake Fromm (17-for-23, 276 yards) and two on the ground from tailbacks Elijah Holyfield and Brian Herrien.

Receiver Riley Ridley led eight different Georgia targets with five catches for 57 yards and a touchdown, while Holyfield paced the Bulldog rushers – who collected a total of 219 yards as a group – with six carries on 64 yards and a touchdown.

Defensive back Richard LeCounte supplied six solo stops for the Bulldog defense, who limited the Commodores to two field goals until the final seconds of the game. Linebacker Channing Tindall also provided five tackles on the night.

At the 10:30 mark in the opening period, Vanderbilt became the first team to lead against the Bulldogs this season, using a 25-yard field goal to cap a 5-play, 50-yard scoring drive.

The Bulldogs used one play to respond as Fromm found receiver Terry Godwin for a 75-yard touchdown. Holyfield settled an 8-play, 86-yard drive with an airborne, horizontal dive into the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown run and a 14-3 lead. The Commodores tacked on another field goal with 2:18 remaining in the first half, but Fromm found Ridley on a 10-yard touchdown to send Georgia into intermission with a 21-6 advantage.

Georgia opened the second half with an 8-play, 75-yard drive, finalized by a 35-yard D'Andre Swift catch and run from Fromm. Blankenship used a 53-yard field goal to make it 31-6, before Herrien, flanked by the Georgia offensive line, fought for the touchdown after dropping and recovering the ball for the 38-6 lead.

Blankenship added his second field goal of the day for insurance before the Commodores produced a final touchdown as the final seconds on the clock wound down.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We played sloppy and I was disappointed with the way we played. It's sad when you have undisciplined penalties. We're trying to teach our team a lesson – you don't beat good football teams having those errors. We did a few good things, too, and I don't want to overshadow that. We ran the ball against a team that said, 'You're not going to run on us.' But we've got to continue to improve. It starts with discipline ... with tying your shoes before practice, being on time for practice, following the rules and regulations. When you do those things, you don't have penalties."

Terry Godwin scored Georgia's first touchdown against Vandy with a 75-yard catch and run in the first quarter.

• Georgia posted a 41-13 win to run its record to 6-0 (4-0 SEC). It marks the 12th time in school history that Georgia has raced out to a 6-0 start, and it's the first time the Bulldogs have done it in back-to-back seasons.

• Junior PK Rodrigo Blankenship connected on five extra points to make him 32-for-32 on the year and to give him 121 straight. This topped Blair Walsh's school record of 119. Blankenship also had touchbacks on seven of eight kickoffs, giving him 44 on the year and 132 in his career.

• Georgia now leads the all-time series with Vanderbilt 57-20-2 including 21-4 on Homecoming. Overall, Georgia is 77-18-2 in Homecoming contests.

• Georgia's defense held Vanderbilt scoreless on its second trip to the Red Zone. The Bulldogs stalled a drive that started on Vanderbilt's 5-yard line by stopping the Commodores on the Georgia 14-yard line during a 4th-and-1 situation. This was Georgia's third Red Zone stop of the year.

• Sophomore QB Jake Fromm connected with senior WR Terry Godwin for a 75-yard touchdown, which marked the longest passing play of the 2018 season thus far. This was a career-long catch for Godwin and the longest for the Bulldogs since Fromm connected with WR Mecole Hardman on an 80-yard score in the 2018 CFP National Championship versus Alabama.

No. 12 LSU 36, No. 2 Georgia 16

Oct. 13, 2018 • Tiger Stadium • Baton Rouge, La.

BATON ROUGE, La. — Second-ranked Georgia suffered a 36-16 upset loss against No. 12 LSU in front of a crowd of 102,321 at Tiger Stadium and a nationally televised CBS audience.

Georgia forced a three-and-out on the game's opening drive, but the momentum didn't matriculate to the rest of the half. The Bulldogs' most successful first-half drive came on their second possession, which spanned 12 plays for 59 yards – all on the ground. However, a thwarted fake field goal attempt halted the Bulldogs.

Georgia trailed 16-0 at intermission, putting the Bulldogs in a hole that they didn't overcome. In the first half, quarterback Jake Fromm was 5-for-16 for 47 yards, while most of the production occurred on the ground with D'Andre Swift tallying 47 yards on seven carries and Elijah Holyfield mustering 33 yards on five attempts.

The Bulldogs took the opening possession of the third quarter 52 yards on 12 plays, setting up a 40-yard Rodrigo Blankenship field goal to make it 16-3. After a Fromm interception gave the Tigers a short field, the Bulldogs defense held LSU to its fourth field goal inside Georgia's 25-yard line.

Holyfield finished off a 7-play, 75-yard drive on the ensuing possession with a 10-yard touchdown run to make it a 19-9 game after an unsuccessful 2-point try.

After each team traded punts to start the fourth quarter, LSU capitalized with a touchdown and a field goal to move ahead 29-9.

With six minutes to go, the Bulldogs found the end zone again as Fromm threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Ridley.

Fromm finished 16-of-34 for 209 passing yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. Ridley led the receiving group with three catches for 75 yards and the touchdown. Swift picked up a team-high 72 yards on a dozen attempts, while Holyfield added 56 yards on seven carries and a touchdown.

With the win over Georgia, the Tigers take a 17-13-1 edge in the series history that dates back to 1928. This was the 11th meeting where both teams were ranked in the top 25 and LSU now leads that 6-5.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We didn't play our best game. You have to give LSU credit. They are a great football team. We didn't do well against their hurry-up offense, which caused us to not be able to play as many guys as we normally do. They did a great job of mixing up their play calls with run and pass. Offensively, we had a drought and they capitalized. We didn't come out physical today. We just have to execute better and get better overall."

Tyson Campbell (3) and J.R. Reed bring down an LSU receiver during second-quarter action in Baton Rouge.

• The final score marks Georgia's first 20-point loss since losing at Auburn last season, 40-17.

• Defensively, Georgia gave up a season-high 475 total yards and 36 points; however the Bulldogs forced five LSU field goals inside the Georgia 25-yard line and were on the field for a season-high 33 minutes and 41 seconds. Freshman CB Tyson Campbell had a team-high and career-high 11 tackles, while defensive end Jonathan Ledbetter tallied 10 tackles – also a career high.

• For the first time since the 2016 Auburn game, Georgia was shut out in the first half. Auburn led 7-0 at the half that day, and the Bulldogs rallied back for a 13-7 victory. The Bulldogs came in today averaging 42.8 points a game.

• The Bulldogs had three sacks in the first half as senior LB D'Andre Walker got his team-leading fifth while junior DL Tyler Clark and senior LB Keyon Richardson split a sack and freshman LB Robert Beal, Jr., registered his first.

• Sophomore QB Jake Fromm came in ranked fourth nationally in passing efficiency but finished 16-for-34 for 209 yards with 1 TD and 2 INTs.

No. 7 Georgia 36, No. 9 Florida 17

Oct. 27, 2018 • TIAA Bank Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — No. 7 Georgia dominated a top-10 matchup with No. 9 Florida 36-17 in front of a crowd of 84,463 at TIAA Bank Stadium, a CBS national television audience and with ESPN College Gameday and SEC Nation in attendance.

The Bulldogs improved to 7-1 overall and 5-1 in Southeastern Conference play with the victory against Florida, which drops to 6-2 overall and 4-2 in league competition.

Quarterback Jake Fromm connected on three touchdown passes (all on third down), with a 17-for-24 passing clip for 240 yards, two of those going to receiver Jeremiah Holloman over 12 and 16 yards, respectively.

The Georgia run game controlled the first drive for the Bulldog offense, split between tailbacks Elijah Holyfield and D'Andre Swift. Through 12 plays and 71 yards, the pair of tailbacks marched the Bulldogs to the Florida 4-yard line, where kicker Rodrigo Blankenship drilled a 21-yard field goal.

Three plays later, linebacker Monty Rice caused a fumble that was recovered by defensive back Richard LeCounte, who ran for 32 yards. Set up in the red zone, the Bulldog offense produced a 16-yard touchdown from Fromm to Holloman.

On a subsequent drive, the Bulldogs utilized tight end Isaac Nauta on four straight completions from Fromm on the right side. Blankenship sent the Bulldogs into the break with a 13-7 lead following his 22-yard field goal.

The Gators opened the second half with a 36-yard touchdown pass to go up 14-13, but Georgia countered with Fromm's second touchdown completion to Holloman, a 12-yard back-shoulder throw for a 20-14 lead. Shortly after, defensive back Tyrique McGhee forced a fumble recovered by linebacker Tae Crowder at the Florida 1-yard-line, leading to another Blankenship kick from 18 yards out.

Florida made it a one-possession game with a 42-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, but the Bulldog offense kicked into gear with a 24-yard strike from Fromm to receiver Terry Godwin with 8:39 left and capped off by a 33-yard Swift run for a 36-17 final.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We've got kids with character. Everybody questioned these kids because we didn't play our best game (two weeks ago against LSU), and all we did was work. Everybody questioned and questioned it. They are tough, physical kids. We still have a long way to go. But we got better today…They played their hearts out. I'm so proud of the way they played. I'm proud for the University of Georgia."

Jake Fromm directed three second-half scoring drives of 72, 75 and 66 yards to defeat Florida for the second straight year.

Worth Noting…

• Georgia's 36-17 win over No. 9 Florida gave the Bulldogs their second straight win in the series and fifth victory in the last seven contests. The Bulldogs now lead the all-time series 52-43-2.

• Sophomore QB Jake Fromm finished 17-for-24 for 240 yards and 3 TDs. In the first half, he went 8-for-11 for 97 yards as Georgia built a 13-7 edge. The three TD passes by Fromm ties the Bulldog mark in the Florida series in the modern era, also done by Aaron Murray (2010), Matthew Stafford (2007) and Buck Belue (1980).

• Sophomore LB Monty Rice established a new career high with 11 total tackles (five solo, six assisted), and forced a fumble for sophomore DB Richard LeCounte to recover that led to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter.

• Sophomore LT Andrew Thomas and junior WR Mecole Hardman both returned to the game after each left the field of play due to injury.

• In his first career start, sophomore WR Jeremiah Holloman snagged four catches for 48 yards, including two touchdown grabs on third downs in the same end zone corner. Freshman DL Jordan Davis also earned the nod to start the game.

No. 6 Georgia 34, No. 11 Kentucky 17

Nov. 3, 2018 • Kroger Field • Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — For the second year in a row, Georgia captured the SEC Eastern Division Championship as the No. 6 Bulldogs defeated No. 11 Kentucky 34-17 in front of 67,606 fans at Kroger Field and a national CBS television audience.

Georgia improved to 8-1 overall and 6-1 in the SEC, while the Wildcats fell to 7-2 and 5-2. The Bulldogs went undefeated against SEC East foes for the second straight season.

Entering Saturday, Kentucky represented the nation's top defense, yielding just 13 points per game, and the SEC's third-toughest run defense, giving up just 107.5 yards per game, while also averaging 214 rushing yards of its own. Georgia flipped the script by tallying the most points on the Wildcats this season, accumulating a season-high 331 yards on the ground, and limiting Kentucky to 84 yards on the ground.

Tailback D'Andre Swift finished with a career-high 156 rushing yards on 16 carries and two touchdowns. Swift's second score came on an 83-yard sprint in the third quarter for the Bulldogs' longest run of the year and the longest by a Bulldog since Nick Chubb in 2015. Tailback Elijah Holyfield added a personal-best 115 yards on 18 carries and a touchdown.

Quarterback Jake Fromm went 14-of-20 for 113 yards and a touchdown. Fromm's top target was receiver Jeremiah Holloman with four catches for 39 yards. Fromm's touchdown pass went to tight end Isaac Nauta in the first quarter and covered four yards.

Quarterback Justin Fields tacked on four rushing first downs, none more important than a fourth-quarter pickup that enabled Georgia to continue to run clock with less than six minutes to play.

Kicker Rodrigo Blankenship tacked on fourth-quarter field goals of 23 and 38 yards to cap the Bulldogs' scoring.

Linebacker Monty Rice amassed a team-high eight tackles with a sack, while end Jonathan Ledbetter and linebackers Channing Tindall and Brenton Cox all recorded sacks too. Linebacker Juwan Taylor and Ledbetter forced fumbles which cornerback Tyson Campbell and lineman Tyler Clark recovered, respectively.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"[Winning another SEC East title is] huge. It hasn't been easy, and it's never easy. Sometimes I think people get spoiled when you win, and these are good programs and teams. I give our kids a lot of credit because their backs were against the wall two weeks in a row, and they came out fighting, scratching and clawing."

Elijah Holyfield rushed for a career-best 115 yards against Kentucky. Georgia gained 331 yards as a team against the Wildcats.

Worth Noting…

• With its 34-17 victory, defending SEC Champion Georgia (8-1, 6-1 SEC) has clinched another trip to Atlanta for the SEC Championship Game (SECG). The Bulldogs will be making their seventh appearance in the game, and they are 3-3 including winning the 2017 SEC title over Auburn last year. The Bulldogs now have won or shared the SEC Eastern Division crown nine times (1992, 2002, '03, '05, '07, '11, '12, '17 and '18).

• For the second straight season, Georgia has gone 6-0 against the SEC East. Last year marked the first time the Bulldogs had done that since the league split into divisions in 1992.

• Going in, Georgia ranked 13th nationally in scoring defense (16.3 points per game), while the Wildcats ranked No. 1 nationally, allowing only 13.0 points per game and had not allowed more than 20 points in a game. Georgia held UK to 17 points as the Wildcats ran 64 plays for 310 total yards.

• Sophomore TB D'Andre Swift had a career-high 156 yards on 16 carries and two TDs, one of which was the longest rushing Georgia TD since Nick Chubb went 83 yards for a score against Alabama in 2015. Sophomore TB Elijah Holyfield added a career-high 115 yards on 18 carries. The duo averaged 6.1 yards a carry. Georgia finished with a season-high in rushing yards, the most since 381 on 44 attempts versus Kentucky last year.

No. 5 Georgia 27, No. 24 Auburn 10

Nov. 10, 2018 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS — Behind 303 yards on the ground and a stout defense in the second half, Georgia defeated Auburn 27-10 in front of an ESPN audience and a capacity crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium.

Tailback D'Andre Swift led the Bulldogs' ground attack with a career-best 186 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries. Swift punctuated his day with a 77-yard touchdown run early the final quarter. Tailback Elijah Holyfield contributed 93 yards on 15 attempts.

Quarterback Jake Fromm went 13-of-20 for 193 yards and two touchdowns for the Bulldogs. Fromm's touchdowns covered 14 yards to receiver Tyler Simmons and 38 yards to receiver Terry Godwin. Godwin hauled in three passes for 84 yards and the score.

Kicker Rodrigo Blankenship drilled first-half field goals covering 25 and 20 yards. Blankenship also went 4-for-4 on extra points.

After Blankenship's first-quarter field goal, Auburn used a bit of trickery to find the end zone first. Running back JaTarvious Whitlow took a handoff and passed nine yards to John Shenker for a score with 4:28 left in the first period.

The game's momentum swung toward Georgia for good in the final minutes before halftime. Fromm found Tyler Simmons for a 14-yard score that put the Bulldogs ahead 13-10 with 2:47 left in the second quarter. The Bulldog defense then forced an Auburn punt after just three plays, giving Georgia possession again at the 2:00 mark. Five plays later, on fourth-and-three from the Tigers' 38-yard line, Fromm connected with a streaking Terry Godwin for another score.

Both teams fought for field position in a scoreless third quarter. Georgia appeared to have won the battle when Jake Camarda's final punt of the night was downed at the Auburn 1-yard line with 3:52 left in the period.

The Tigers managed a pair of first downs before punting back to Georgia on the first play of the final quarter. Two plays and a false start penalty later, Swift sealed the game's outcome when he broke free at the line and used key downfield blocks to run 77 yards for a touchdown.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We're a work in progress. We're fighting tooth and nail and we don't panic. It was a physical game. We played a ton of guys on defense. I'm proud of the way the guys competed. If we feed [D'Andre Swift], he does well. He's got a great offensive line in front of him, he's explosive and he makes guys miss on the second level. The wide-outs deserve credit for some big-time down-field blocking too."

D'Andre Swift rushed for a career-high 186 yards on just 17 carries, including a fourth-quarter touchdown run of 77 yards.

• The Bulldogs closed out the SEC part of the regular season with a 7-1 league mark and improved to 9-1 overall. Georgia extended its series advantage over the Tigers to 59-56-8 in the 123rd meeting in the Deep South's oldest rivalry.

• The Bulldogs, who lead the SEC in rushing at 233.8 yards per game, finished with 303 on the ground after getting a season-high 331 yards in the road win over Kentucky last Saturday. Overall, Georgia churned out 516 yards of total offense, the most since 560 against Vanderbilt this year.

• Sophomore TB D'Andre Swift went over 100 yards for the third straight game to highlight the Bulldogs' rushing game. Swift went for a career-high 186 yards on 17 carries after going for 156 at No. 9 Kentucky the week before. This is the most yards for a Georgia running back since Nick Chubb exploded for 222 versus North Carolina in the 2016 season opener. Swift also had a team-high four catches for 43 yards.

• Georgia had the ball for 20:02 in the first half and out-gained Auburn 266-149 in total yards as the Bulldogs surged ahead 20-10.

• The QB Jake Fromm-WR Terry Godwin 38-yard connection on fourth-and-2 was the Bulldogs' fourth score at the end of a first half this year with less than two minutes to go.

• With two field goals on the game, junior PK Rodrigo Blankenship improved to 17-of-19 on FGs this year. Blankenship also launched touchbacks on four kickoffs of the game to give him 58, which is ranked second nationally.

No. 5 Georgia 66, UMass 27

Nov. 17, 2018 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS — No. 5 Georgia accumulated season highs of 701 yards of offense and 66 points, downing Massachusetts 66-27 in front of a crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an SEC Network national television audience.

The Bulldogs improved to 10-1 overall with one game left in the regular season, while Massachusetts concluded its season at 4-8.

Quarterback Jake Fromm produced a 5-for-5 clip with 106 yards and a touchdown before quarterback Justin Fields entered the contest to accumulate 100 yards on the ground and 121 through the air with three touchdowns.

Five other members of the Bulldog backfield joined Fields on the ground with nearly 50-plus yards apiece and five combined touchdowns.

Receiver Tyler Simmons opened the Georgia scoring with a 49-yard touchdown run off a jet sweep. The Bulldogs then added a 5-yard touchdown scamper by tailback Elijah Holyfield for a 14-0 first-quarter lead.

Fields stole the show in the second quarter by initiating three touchdowns. Fields connected with Riley Ridley on an 11-yard scoring toss. After Fromm re-entered on the ensuing drive and found Simmons up the sideline for a 71-yard catch and run, Fields posted a 3-yard scoring run and a 57-yard touchdown pass to receiver Mecole Hardman as the Bulldogs led 42-13 at the break.

Tailback James Cook joined the scoring in the second half, rattling off runs of 26 and 27 for touchdowns for the Bulldogs. Georgia also registered a 40-yard field goal from kicker Rodrigo Blankenship and a 6-yard touchdown run by tailback Brian Herrien.

Blankenship went 9-for-9 on extra points.

The Bulldog offense did not send punter Jake Camarda to the field (except to hold on placement kicks); all but two possessions resulted in points, due to a fumbled punt return and the end of regulation. Georgia played to the third down only six times. Sixth-six points marked the most for Georgia (10-1) since its 70 against Northeast Louisiana in 1994.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I'm proud of the guys. We challenged them to play hard, to start fast, to play fast and not mosey around. We got things rolling and did some big things. I was really proud of the focus. We've gotten a little better offensively and we'll keep working on it. We need to get the playmakers the ball and peak at the right time. We out-manned those guys. They played hard and competed, but we know it won't be that way the rest of the season."

Freshman Justin Fields played extensively against UMass, passing for 121 yards and becoming the first UGA quarterback since 1999 to surpass 100 yards rushing.

• Junior WR Tyler Simmons enjoyed a big first half with a pair of touchdowns, one coming on a career-long 49-yard rush and the other on an 87-yard reception from sophomore QB Jake Fromm. Simmons is the first Bulldog to score a TD rushing and receiving since WR Mecole Hardman against Alabama in the 2018 National Championship Game.

• Georgia, the SEC's rushing leader averaging 240.7 yards a game, tallied 426, including 168 in the first quarter. Freshman QB Justin Fields led the team with 100 yards on seven carries including a TD.

• Senior C Lamont Gaillard started his team-leading 39th straight game. Senior DB Deandre Baker now has 32, including a streak of 14, with junior DB J.R. Reed the most consecutive on defense with 26. Redshirt freshman Eric Stokes made his first career start at LC. True freshman Trey Hill got his first career start at RG.

No. 5 Georgia 45, Georgia Tech 21

Nov. 24, 2018 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - Georgia kept the Governor's Cup in Athens for the second consecutive season with its 45-21 victory over Georgia Tech. The win marked a perfect record at home for the Bulldogs with an 11-1 regular-season record in back-to-back years.

Quarterback Jake Fromm began the game with seven straight completions. He finished the game 13-for-16 with 175 yards and a career-high four touchdowns. Sophomore tailback D'Andre Swift registered his fourth 100-yard rushing contest of the season with 105, complete with a touchdown.

Junior wide receiver Riley Ridley finalized Georgia's first possession with a five-yard touchdown. After the first Georgia defensive stop, the Bulldogs used an 11-play, 88-yard march – featuring a 39-yard rush from junior Elijah Holyfield and receptions from tight ends senior Charlie Woerner and junior Isaac Nauta – to reach the 1-yard line, where Swift fought for the touchdown and the 14-0 margin.

After the Yellow Jackets' Juanyeh Thomas returned the first 100-yard kickoff return against the Bulldogs since 1999, Georgia's distanced itself with a 6-play, 63-yard drive, highlighted by Jayson Stanley's 26-yard rush. A 12-yard touchdown from Fromm to sophomore wide receiver Jeremiah Holloman gave the Bulldogs a 21-7 lead.

Georgia marched 40 yards between a 13-yard Swift rush and three-straight Nauta receptions to set up a Rodrigo Blankenship 25-yard field goal. Georgia headed into the half with a 38-7 advantage.

The Bulldogs opened the second half by forcing Tech to punt. Holyfield and Swift then combined to take Georgia to the 4-yard line, where Fromm found Ridley for final score of the day.

Georgia Tech had just one more meaningful possession of the second half. Trailing 45-7, the Jackets needed 15 plays and 9:05 to cover just 36 yards. The drive stalled at the Georgia 39, where they failed to convert on fourth down, their sixth such try of the day and third of the drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"The kids played hard and practiced hard. Our defensive coaching staff put a lot of effort in and it paid off. The look from the scouts all week was tremendous. They gave us a good picture and a lot of credit goes to those kids. ... It's an eyes football game. You've got to look at your keys the whole time and we did that... [The SEC Championship game] is where this program should be. It feels like a game we should be going to every year. Our guys will lay it on the line and they're excited about the opportunity. It will be a great atmosphere, one of the best in college football. It will be another game week for us. We'll prepare for our opponent and treat it like every other week."

Jeremiah Holloman caught the second of four Jake Fromm touchdowns passes on the day.

• Georgia's 45-21 victory over Georgia Tech improves the Bulldogs' senior class to a 42-11 record which is tied for third with the 2004 class's 42-10 record. Georgia went a perfect 7-0 at home this year.

• For the fourth time in school history since a 12th-game was added to the season in 2002, Georgia has won at least 11 games in the regular season. Georgia has gone 11-1 during the regular season in 2002, 2012, 2017 and now 2018. In the series history with Tech, Georgia improves to 67-39-5 all-time and retains the Governor's Cup Trophy.

• Georgia scored touchdowns on its first five possessions and six out of its nine times with the ball and added a field goal during its 11thwin of the year. This comes after the Bulldogs scored touchdowns on all seven possessions in the first half last week versus Massachusetts and then scored on four of five drives during the second half against the Minutemen. Georgia's first punt came in the 4thquarter, a span of seven quarters dating back to the Auburn game after not punting last week against UMass.

• With one fumble against GT, Georgia is now +3 in turnover margin. The Bulldogs have forced 15 turnovers that have led to 51 points. Their opponents have forced 12 turnovers that have resulted in 30 points.

• Georgia had a pair of first-time starters on defense. Sophomore defensive lineman Malik Herring and junior defensive lineman Michael Barnett got the nod for the Bulldogs. Senior C Lamont Gaillard started his team-leading 40th consecutive game while on defense, junior J.R. Reed started his unit-leading 27th-straight time.

No. 1 Alabama 35, No. 4 Georgia 28

SEC Championship Game

ATLANTA — Three unanswered touchdowns from No. 1 Alabama lifted the Crimson Tide past No. 4 Georgia Bulldogs in a 35-28 decision in the 2018 SEC Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in front of a nationally televised CBS audience.

The Crimson Tide threatened in their first drive of the game, reaching the Georgia six-yard line, but an 11-yard sack by D'Andre Walker followed by Richard LeCounte's first career interception kept the scoreboard clean. Three possessions later, Fromm connected with Nauta over the middle for a 20-yard score.

After Alabama knotted the score at 7-all, Georgia orchestrated a 13-play, 74-yard scoring drive that consumed 7:19 off the clock. This time Fromm went a perfect six-for-six including two third-down completions. Swift capped the drive with a 9-yard run to make it a 14-7 Georgia lead.

Next, Georgia's defense forced a three-and-out, giving the ball back to the offense and to Swift who proceeded to rack up 44 yards in a 51-yard touchdown drive. The Philadelphia native ended the drive with an 11-yard touchdown catch. On the drive, Swift became the 14th Bulldog all-time to eclipse the 1,000-yard rushing mark.

Coming out of the break, the Bulldogs' defense forced Alabama's third three-and-out and Fromm capitalized by dropping a 23-yard touchdown pass into Riley Ridley's hands for the 28-14 lead.

Later in the third quarter, Crimson Tide narrowed the gap to 28-21 on a 51-yard touchdown catch by receiver Jaylen Waddle. Then, with 5:19 left in regulation, Alabama constructed a 16-play game-tying drive with a 10-yard pass from Jalen Hurts to Jerry Jeudy as the equalizer.

The last and game-winning scoring drive occurred in the waning minutes when Hurts scrambled for 15-yards to give the Crimson Tide the 35-28 edge. Hurts went 7-of-9 passing for 82 yards after Tua Tagovailova left the game due to an injury. The SECCG MVP went to Crimson Tide running back Josh Jacobs who had 83 rushing yards and two touchdowns.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It was a tremendous atmosphere. The SEC Championship Game, once again is one of the best games of the year. A lot of credit goes to Alabama, they outperformed us in the second half. The game had a lot of momentum swings - up and down, back and forth, which we knew it would. We have a lot of champions on this team and a lot of kids that have a heart of a lion like these two [Jonathan Ledbetter and Jake Fromm at the podium] right here, especially. They lead this team and care about this university and play really hard."

D'Andre Swift led the Bulldogs in rushing and receiving against Alabama, scoring touchdowns both ways.

Allstate Sugar Bowl Game

NEW ORLEANS — A fast start by Texas -- aided partly by a pair of early Georgia miscues -- enabled the Longhorns to post a surpising upset victory over the Bulldogs in the 85th annual Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Texas tallied scores on four of its first five possessions in building a 20-7 first-half lead. The margin reached 28-7 before Georgia put together two scoring drives in the fourth period, the latter touchdown with just 14 seconds left.

Texas took the opening kickoff and and marched 75 yards in 10 plays, with quarterback Sam Ehlinger covering the final two yards on a keeper. The ensuing Georgia drive stalled at its own 41-yard line, whereupon a low snap caused punter Jake Camarda to field it with his right knee touching the turf at the 27. Georgia's defense, however, forced the Longhorns to settle for a 37-yard field goal.

After an exchange of punts, D'Andre Swift's fumble at his own 12-yard line gave Texas another scoring opportunity. The Longhorns took advantage when Ehlinger scrambled for a 9-yard score three plays later for a 17-0 margin.

Georgia responded with its most effective drive of the night. Jake Fromm completed four passes and Elijah Holyfield ran four times for 20 yards in a touchdown drive that covered 75 yards in 5:50. Brian Herrien caught a 17-yard pass from Fromm for the score at the 9:03 mark of the second quarter.

The Texas lead reached 28-7 on Ehlinger's 1-yard plunge with 11:49 left in the game. Georgia answered with a quick touchdown drive of its own, as well as another late score in the final seconds. Texas, however, was able to expire the clock after it recovered an onside kick at the 47-yard line.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I want to congratulate Texas. Tom [Herman] did a great job with his team and his program. They've gotten better throughout the season. They played more physical than us, and it showed to me that they wanted it more than we did. And you've got to give them credit for that.

"Also, I want to thank my seniors. We've got a group of seniors on this team that came in as 30-something signees and it's down to about six or seven or eight guys that are actually playing now out of that senior class, and that's all that's left is that group. And they bought into what this staff has wanted to do. They've led. They've done the hard things. And they've won a lot of football games, and they've helped turn this program in the right direction. We've just got to find a way to finish it and do it the right way, and we'll do that moving forward."

Texas running back Tre Watson is brought down by a host of UGA defenders in first-half action of the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

• Georgia finished the season 11-3 while UT improved to 10-4. The Bulldogs made their 55th all-time bowl appearance, including the program's 22nd consecutive appearance. With the loss, the Bulldogs are now 31-21-3. The 2018 senior class finished its career with a 42-13 mark and that win total ties for third in school history with the 2004 team.

• Georgia made its 10th all-time appearance in the Sugar Bowl and with the 28-21 loss, it is now 4-6 here. Texas now holds a 4-1 edge in the series history with UGA. The teams are slated to meet during the regular season in 2028 (Austin) and 2029 (Athens).

• In the first half, junior Elijah Holyfield gained 43 rushing yards on nine carries, to give him 999 yards for the year. He went over the 1000-yard mark with an 11-yard gain on the first play of the 2nd half and finished the game with 62 yards and 1,018 total for the season. Holyfield is the 15th Bulldog to have a 1,000-yard season for the 21st time total. Holyfield joins sophomore D'Andre Swift who hit that milestone in the SEC Championship Game. Swift finished the season with 1,049 yards. It marks the second straight year that Georgia has had a pair of 1,000-yard rushers after Nick Chubb (1,345 yards) & Sony Michel (1,227 yards) did it a year ago.

• Coming in to the game, Georgia ranked 13th nationally in scoring at 39.2 points per game but was held to 21 points and 274 yards of total offense. Georgia was blanked in the first half for the first time since the LSU game on Oct. 13 (Down 16-0).

Although the University of Georgia is now known as the home of Uga, the pure white English bulldog, several mascots led the Red and Black before Frank W. Seiler provided the current lineage beginning in 1956.

The Goat -- Feb. 22, 1892

Georgia's mascot for its first football game against Auburn, February 22, 1892 in Atlanta, Ga., was a goat. Old newspaper clippings indicate that the goat wore a black coat with red U.G. letters on each side. He also had on a hat with ribbons all down his high horns, and the Auburn fans yelled throughout the game "shoot the billy-goat."

Trilby, 1894

Trilby with owner Charles H. Black

In 1894, Georgia's mascot was a solid white female bull terrier owned by a student, Charles H. Black, Sr., of Atlanta. Trilby, named after a novel by George Du Maurier, served as the campus pet and mascot for the Chi Phi fraternity.

Disputing stories speculate the origin of the Bulldog nickname, and the story of Trilby provides yet another opinion: "...every day Trilby took herself down to old Herty field with her master for football practice. She ran signals with the best of them and became an accustomed figure on the athletic field...One morning, Trilby failed to appear for her breakfast and after a frantic search she was finally discovered proudly washing the faces of her newborn family, 13 white puppies...Late one dusky fall afternoon, Trilby appeared for a grid workout and scampering after her came her 13 children, darting through players' legs, barking and pace. 'Well,' suggested one of the players, 'Trilby has brought us a name, Bulldogs.' ...Every time a game was played on Herty Field, the boys would floss Trilby and her 13 offerings up with red and black ribbons, and so attired they have gone down in history as perhaps the first 'sponsors' in southern football." —Ruth Stanton Cogill (Atlanta newspaper)

"After the rein of Trilby and her family, chaos developed in the mascot department at the university. Many games had several, depending on which alumnus got his dog to the game first." —AJC, Nov. 18, 1962

Mr. Angel, 1944-46

Mr. Angel, a brindle and white colored English Bulldog owned by Eastman,Ga.,-physician, Warren Coleman, filled a void during some of the war years.

There was no mascot roaming the sidelines and Coleman took Mr. Angel to games and stood with him on the sidelines. His picture on the field and with the Georgia cheerleaders appears in the 1945 and '46 UGA annual, the Pandora.

Butch, 1947-50

Butch was a brindled English bulldog owned by Mabry Smith of Warner Robins, Ga. He was spotted by students who were attending the 1946 Georgia-Georgia Tech game in Athens, and the canine appeared to be suited for the mascot position. Smith agreed to loan Butch to the University during the football season along with a female puppy named Tuffy. The female died of a heart attack following the Georgia-Kentucky game in 1948, but Butch continued to serve. Spending the off-season at Smith's home in Warner Robins, Butch was tragically shot in the summer of 1951 by a policeman after the dog escaped from his pen and was found roaming the streets. Butch is buried behind Smith's business along Watson Boulevard.

In 2004 plans for a marker honoring Butch in his hometown were put into motion by longtime Warner Robins resident Guy Fussell.

Mike, 1951-55

Bronze statue of Mike

Butch was succeeded by Mike, another brindled English bulldog, owned by C. L. Fain. Mike lived in the field house on campus and died of natural canine causes in 1955. As his master's thesis, Gene Owens of Fort Worth, Texas, cast the bronze statue of Mike which is located at the entrance of Memorial Hall

Uga Takes the Field

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia's Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah, Ga., since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956.

Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pittsburgh Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I-IX are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year.

For the past 20 years, Uga's jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players' jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga's on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader's platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

Uga I, 1956-66
"Hood's Ole Dan"
Record: 53-48-6

Uga I

The current Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood's Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by a friend, Frank Heard of Columbus and appeared in his first game in the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, "...his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia. It was necessary to take up children's t-shirts to fit the dog in the right places. There is no telling how many of these jersey's he wore out. During the early games in Athens, especially the hot ones before he had a dog house, the large green hedges that surround Sanford Stadium afford welcomed shade in the heat of battle. Unfortunately, the hedges constantly tore these jerseys and new ones had to be made."

"Ole Dan's Uga"
Record: 42-16-3

Uga I was succeeded by his son, Ole Dan's Uga at an impressive pregame ceremony at Homecoming, 1966. With the Georgia Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to the center of the field by Charles Seiler, son of Sonny and Cecelia. The student body erupted in a cheer that was picked up by the entire stadium, ''Damn Good Dog!''

Uga II had an impressive reign as he watched Georgia participate in five bowl games and win two SEC championships.

Uga III, 1972-80
"Seiler's Uga Three"
Record: 71-32-2

Born Oct. 9, 1972, Seiler's Uga III was present for Georgia football's finest moment as Herschel Walker took the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship. He led Georgia to six bowl games in nine years and closed out his career in ultimate fashion winning the 1980 NCAA championship. Uga III retired on the 100th football game of his career, marking the season-opener of the 1981 season. He died just weeks later.

Uga IV

Uga IV, 1981-89
"Seiler's Uga Four"
Record: 77-27-4

Uga IV was perhaps the most active of all the Georgia mascots, standing as the only one to attend a bowl game every year of his service (1981-89). He took over for Uga III in the 1981 season opener and over the next nine seasons, led Georgia to a record of 77-27-4. The highlight of his career was his personal appearance at the Heisman Trophy Banquet with Herschel Walker in New York on December 9, 1982. Uga IV was escorted through thebanquet hall by the president of the Downtown Athletic Club, and was earlier photographed with Herschel by photographers from across the country. The proud Bulldog donned his game jersey for the outing and added the formal touch of a collar and black tie. Uga IV was the first mascot invited to the Heisman Banquet.Declared ''Dog of the Decade'' by Vince Dooley in 1991, Uga IV was posthumously awarded the highest honor available to University of Georgia mascots — the Georgia varsity letter.

Otto

Otto, 1986
"The Substitute"
Record: 3-1

Although Otto was not pure white like his father, he was called upon to fill in for his younger brother, Uga IV, who injured ligaments in his left hind knee when jumping off a hotel bed before the Vanderbilt contest. In four games during the 1986 season, Otto led the team to a 3-1 record and also co-mascotted (along with Uga IV), a victory over instate rival Georgia Tech. After winning his first two games, fans cheered, "2-and-0 with Otto!" Dooley, serving as head coach during Otto's brief tenure, favored the substitute the most. "I have always had a great affection for those who came off the bench and performed, and he did that and had a great time," Dooley said. Otto is buried in the Seiler's backyard.

Uga V, 1990-99
"UGA IV's Magillicuddy II"
Record: 65-39-1

In the first game of 1990, Uga V officially began his reign as the Georgia mascot, taking over from his father Uga IV, who passed away at his home in Savannah on Feb. 26, 1990. Uga V was the last pup sired by Uga IV and was born on March 6, 1990.

Named in honor of one of the greatest Bulldogs, Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations and longtime tennis coach and sports information director. Surprisingly, the Seiler family became aware that Uga IV's mate was expecting only 10 days before the litter was due. This notice came a week after Uga IV had passed away at his home in Savannah from kidney failure. There were only three pups in the litter and the last one born on March 6 was the only solid white male.

Uga V had been perhaps the most well known of all the Bulldog mascots, highlighted by his appearance on the cover of the April 28, 1997, Sports Illustrated which declared him the nation's best college mascot. Rocketed to stardom, he also appeared in Clint Eastwood's "Midnight In The Garden Of Good And Evil" — filmed in his hometown of Savannah, Ga. He died on Nov. 22, 1999, just over two months after his retirement.

Uga VI

Uga VI, 1999-2008
"Uga V's Whatchagot Loran"
Record: 87-27

In 2007, Uga VI became the winningest mascot in school history and owned a record of 87-27. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after Uga VI reigned over more games than any other mascot with 114. He died on June 27, 2008. In his last game, the Bulldogs defeated Hawai'i 41-10 in the 2008 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans.

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to his heftier and friskier son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 Georgia-South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stood as the biggest of all the Uga mascots weighing in at 65 pounds — 20 pounds heavier than his father.

His first season climaxed in a magnificent come from behind victory over Purdue at the Outback Bowl in Tampa. The 2000 season ended in Hawaii, but due to the distance and a quarantine rule, Uga VI missed the O'ahu Bowl, marking the first time the Georgia mascot had missed the postseason game since the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Alongside first-year head coach Mark Richt, Uga VI saw his third consecutive 8-4 season, which included a 26-24 win at then-No. 6 Tennessee for the Bulldogs' first win in Knoxville since 1980.

Uga VI and Georgia experienced their best run in two decades during the 2002-05 seasons. That stretch included 44 wins, a pair of SEC titles and appearances in the Sugar, Capital One and Outback Bowls.

In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV (77-24-4) for the most wins of any bulldog in school history.

Uga VII, 2008-2009
"Loran's Best"
Record: 16-7

The seventh in the Uga line of Georgia mascots was introduced to the Georgia people on Aug. 30, 2008, during pre-game ceremonies of the Bulldogs' season opener against Georgia Southern.

"Loran's Best" officially became "Uga VII," when he was introduced for the first time to the Sanford Stadium crowd prior to kickoff of the Georgia vs. Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah who have owned the continuous line of mascots since Uga I took up the mantle in 1956.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly on Nov. 19 of heart-related causes. It was the Thursday before the final home game of the 2009 season and the Bulldogs did not have a live mascot at the game. Instead, a wreath was placed on UGA VII's doghouse, and the players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him. "Russ," the five-year-old half brother of Uga VII, served as the Bulldog mascot for the Georgia Tech game in Atlanta and helped his squad to a 30-24 win. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986.

Uga VIII, 2010
"Big Bad Bruce"
Record: 4-2

Uga VIII

Born Sept. 12, 2009 in Savannah, Ga., Uga VIII is the grandson of Uga VI. He carried on the tradition of more than 60 years of all-white bulldogs bred by Frank "Sonny" Seiler and family.

Uga VIII was named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the University's School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Hollett has been a longtime caregiver for the famed line of English bulldogs. UGA VIII served six games in the 2010 season before he became ill and missed the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. He passed away with lymphoma on February 4, 2011.

Uga IX, 2012-14
("Russ", 2009-2012: 16-9)
Record: 44-19

Uga IX

"Uga IX, formerly "Russ," the half-brother of Uga VII, served as interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His time as mascot included the 2011 and 2012 SEC Eastern Division championships, three road wins at Georgia Tech, a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La., and a win over Nebraska in the 2013 Capital One Bowl. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986.

Epitaph: He endeared himself to the Georgia people. His dedication to duty when called upon was exemplary.

Uga X, 2015-Present
"Que"
Record: 42-13

Uga IX officially retired as the Bulldogs' mascot at the end of the 2014 season. After a three-month "audition" in that role, his grandson "Que" was formally crowned as his successor in a collaring ceremony prior to the Georgia-Georgia Southern game on Nov. 21, 2015. Que assumed the title of Uga X at the age of 2 1/2 years. During his audition, he made appearances at the Countdown to Kickoff event in July 2015, as well as Picture Day in August, before presiding over the entirety of the 2015 football season. Que capped his inaugural season by leading the team to a 24-17 victory over Penn State at the 2016 Taxslayer Bowl.

The Arch

Serving as the official symbol of the University of Georgia, the Arch was built in the 1850s and originally served as part of a larger iron fence securing the campus. Daniel Redfearn (BL 1909, BS 1910) is credited with making the Arch the sacred symbol of UGA. Recognized as one of the school's finest icons, students today hold the Arch in high regard as its three pillars represent the virtues of wisdom, justice, and moderation.

The "G"

In 1963 after becoming the Bulldogs' Head Football Coach, Vince Dooley redesigned the football uniform, choosing a red helmet with a black "G" on a white background as the dominant feature of the new uniform for the 1964 season.

He discussed with his staff that a forward-looking "G" would be an appropriate emblem for the helmet of the Georgia team. Dooley had just hired John Donaldson, former Georgia player from 1945 to 1948, as backfield coach. Donaldson was keen on the idea of a new image and volunteered his wife, Anne, who had a BFA in commercial art from UGA, to design a logo for the new Georgia helmet with the general specifications Dooley had outlined. Dooley accepted Anne's original "G" which fit his vision for a forward look to Georgia's new emblem.

Since the Georgia "G", though different in design and color, was similar to Green Bay's "G", Coach Dooley thought it best to clear the use of Georgia's new emblem with the NFL team. Athletic Director Joel Eaves called for permission, which was granted. However, since its inception in 1961, the Green Bay "G" has been redesigned several times and now looks like Georgia's original 1964 "G." Georgia is proud that the Packers apparently liked the special nuances of the Bulldogs' forward-looking "G".

Georgia's oval "G", eventually replacing Georgia's old block "G" as the official UGA symbol, has stood the test of time. It made its first appearance in the opening game in 1964 and was an immediate hit with the Georgia fans, especially after Dooley's first three teams were so successful—highlighted by the 1966 SEC Championship.

"Silver Britches"

Silver Britches were an innovation of Coach Wally Butts, who took over as head coach in 1939. The handsome pants complemented the bright red jersey and made for a striking uniform. Through the years, fans referred to the Bulldogs' silver britches in their chants and on banners, but the phrase really caught on in the early fifties with a cheer, banners, and colorful vests that proclaimed "Go, You Silver Britches." Coach Vince Dooley re-designed the uniform when he came in 1964 and used white pants; however, he re-instituted the silver britches in 1980 just prior to what turned out to be Georgia's national championship season.

The Chapel Bell

The ringing of the chapel bell after a Georgia victory is a tradition that continues even though freshmen are no longer ordered to do the chore. In the 1890's, the playing field was located only yards from the Chapel and first-year students were compelled to ring the bell until midnight in celebration of a Bulldog victory. Today students, alumni, and townspeople still rush to the Chapel to ring the bell after a gridiron victory.

"Glory, Glory"

Among the University's oldest and most lasting traditions is the school fight song, "Glory, Glory," which is sung to the tune of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." It was sung at games as early as the 1890's, but arranged in its present form by Georgia's immortal musician-composer Hugh Hodgson in 1915. There have been many Bulldog songs through the years and at least two collections dating back to 1909 have been published, but none have enjoyed more acceptance than "Glory, Glory."

"How 'Bout Them Dogs"

This is a slogan of recent vintage, but one that has become a battle cry of Bulldog fans probably because of its obvious grammatical slur. It first surfaced during the mid to late 1970's especially during the 1978 season when the Bulldogs posted several remarkable, come-from-behind victories. It gained national attention and exposure when Georgia won the national championship in 1980. A major wire service used the phrase in its story of Georgia's victory over Notre Dame and many newspapers picked it up in glaring headlines across the country proclaiming "How 'Bout Them Dogs!"

"Bulldogs"

Many oldtimers say Georgia acquired the nickname, "Bulldogs," because of the strong ties with Yale, whose nickname is "Bulldogs." Georgia's first president, Abraham Baldwin, was a Yale man and the early buildings on campus were designed from blueprints of the same buildings at Yale. However, the first references to the nickname "Bulldogs" actually came in the 1910's (1911-20) by Atlanta newspaper writers covering both football and baseball games. Although used occasionally during the previous decade, the nickname began to be consistently used around 1920.

On Nov. 3, 1920, Morgan Blake of the Atlanta Journal wrote about school nicknames and said "The Georgia Bulldogs would sound good because there is a certain dignity about a bulldog, as well as ferocity." After a 0-0 tie with Virginia in Charlottesville on Nov. 6, 1920, Atlanta Constitution writer Cliff Wheatley used the name "Bulldogs" in his story five times. Gene Hinton also used the term "Bulldogs." The nickname seemed to be off and running.

"Between The Hedges"

A reference to Sanford Stadium that dates to the early 1930's. The famous Chinese privet hedges that surround Sanford's playing field were only one foot high when the stadium was dedicated in 1929 and were protected by a wooden fence. It was natural for a clever sports writer, referring to an upcoming home game, to observe "that the Bulldogs will have their opponent 'between the hedges.'" At least one old-timer says the phrase was first coined by the legendary Atlanta sportswriter Grantland Rice.

"Lone Trumpeter"

Seven minutes before kickoff in Sanford Stadium, the Bulldog Nation directs its attention to a lone trumpeter standing in the upper deck of the southwest corner of the stadium. The soloist is recognized and begins to play the first 14 notes of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The Battle Hymn solo was originally composed in 1987 as a student project by Jeff Simmons and became a part of the pre-game traditions in 2000. Each year, 25-30 members of the Redcoat Band audition for one of the 4-5 soloist positions.
